IT'S LUNCH TIME...and we've got bad news ☹

Our "new" leaf truck is now down...the maintenance guys are in the process of repairing it as I write and we will let you know when it's back up and running. We are doing our best, but any leaves put out at this point MAY not get removed before Thanksgiving.

Options:

1. Embrace the natural beauty of autumn with the fallen leaves scattered about...
2. If you NEED them gone now, have your landscaper take them with them...
3. Put them out for us, but exercise extreme patience...we will get there, but it could take a bit.

VOTING...We are slowly getting there, almost ½ way... 220 of the 500 votes we need. PLEASE COME VOTE!

Fresh popcorn is still being made!
