

Job Title: 5-12 Literature Teacher

Location: Artios Academies of West Michigan- Fruitport, MI

Position Type: Part-Time, 1 day per week (Tuesdays), 28 weeks, September-May

Hours:

- Teaching Classes: 9:00 AM – 3:00 PM

Overview:

At Artios, we believe that education is more than just acquiring knowledge—it's about exploring stories, understanding human experience, and discovering the beauty of God's narrative throughout history. We are seeking a passionate and dedicated Literature Teacher to join our team—someone who loves literature and views it as a powerful tool to inspire imagination, cultivate empathy, and explore God's truth.

This role is about partnership—partnering with families, with students, and with our community to nurture a love for reading, critical thinking, and deeper appreciation for the written word. Through engaging instruction and thoughtful discussion, students will explore literary classics and contemporary works that challenge them to think deeply and respond thoughtfully.

If you are passionate about inspiring students to see literature as a reflection of God's creativity and human experience, Artios might just be the place for you.

Key Responsibilities:

Inspire and Equip Through Classroom Instruction:

- Teach three Literature classes (5-6, 7-8, High School) one day per week.
- 5-6, 7-8 students will explore many of the same literary works, with deeper dives into concepts and advanced writing skills at the 7-8 level.
- Implement provided lesson plans that engage students in literary analysis, critical thinking, and collaborative discussion.
- Foster a classroom environment rooted in respect, curiosity, and a love for learning that points back to the Creator.

Build Community and Foster Faith:

- Support the mission of Artios by creating a nurturing environment where students feel valued, challenged, and inspired.
- Partner with parents in the academic and spiritual development of their children.
- Encourage students to view their academic gifts as ways to serve and impact their community.

Job Title: 5-12 Literature Teacher

Qualifications:

- A strong commitment to the mission and values of Artios Academies.
- Bachelor's degree in Literature, English, Education, or a related field (preferred).
- Experience teaching literature to K-12 students (preferred).
- Excellent communication and organizational skills.
- Ability to inspire curiosity, critical thinking, and confidence in students.
- A love for children, a passion for teaching, and a heart for Christian education.

Application Process:

To apply, please send your resume, a cover letter, and a brief statement of your philosophy of education to John Heiss, jheiss@artiosacademies.com. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis until the position is filled.

Join us in equipping the next generation of thinkers and storytellers with confidence, creativity, and a love for learning that glorifies God. Together, let's inspire students to discover the beauty of literature and the richness of God's story woven throughout history.

Artios Academies is committed to providing a nurturing environment where students can grow in their faith, explore their academic talents, and develop into creative, confident leaders.
