

Liar Dance (DECO*27)

Translyrics by Caity Cat

"Oh, stolen? How could we have ever known?"

Another day spent claiming my innocence to uphold, this vow I swore to you alone
a "love" confession dripping with ambivalence

"Oh, stolen? How could this happen yet again?"

Fully committed to the lines off of my script
All of these memories to which we tightly gripped
Burning out of control, feelings take their toll

Rambling on and on, do you ever shut your mouth?
It's just everything you breathe is starting to look like a lie somehow
You wanna run and hide? It's too bad that there's no way out
It takes two to tango, so they say, we'll bear the guilt now

1, 2...1, 2, 3

Time to dance, you liar!

This "love"s been overfilled with desire
Take a pin, pop it in, and now we can begin to drain it, count out "I-love-you" again
Drown in it, you liar!

Douse this love's ever-weakening fire
Feel free to drain me to your heart's content
Not like it matters anymore
There's no fixing it

"Oh, stolen? Well, I can't begin to surmise..."

Just another day feigning my fidelity
Buried it, deep down away from prying eyes
Thirsty, a chance to dance to a bubbly melody

"Goddamnit! How did- wait, what were we talking about?"

Slipping up ten times over will never blow my cover
Falling deep into a mire, we can't get out
I see your frown, why do you let yourself drown?

Now it seems everyone and their brother are laughing at you and I myself can only see you as a lie too
I don't really know why I still feel anything for you
It takes two to tango, so they say, I'll bear the guilt too

1, 2...1, 2, 3

Your dance is done, you liar!
The time for saying "sorry"s expired
Partners in crime, "love" can't take us alive
Who cares if the hourglass can't turn back?
Were you wrapped up, liar?
Turn me right-side in, I look like you within
Hello my new friends, "punishment" and "sin"
Just lock me up inside a cell
(As) it's all gone to hell

Time to dance, you liar
This "love"s been overfilled with desire
Take a pin, pop it in, and now we can begin to make untruth, count "I love you" again
Drown in it, you liar!
Douse this love's ever-weakening fire
Feel free to drain me to your heart's content
Not like it matters anymore..
Anymore...!

Your dance is done, you liar!
The time for saying "sorry"s expired
Partners in crime, "love" can't take us alive
Who cares if the hourglass can't turn back?
Were you wrapped up, liar?
Turn me right-side in, I look like you within
Hello my new friends, "punishment" and "sin"
Nothing you say can help since...

It's warped beyond repair
It's scary, I'm well aware

But the moon's bright in the sky
See ya someday
This is goodbye
