

Answer the following True or False questions about the video. If the following statements are False, rewrite them so that they are correct.

- a. The statistics Ali discusses in the first part of the video are true for all boys and girls.

- True
- False

- b. There are several programs designed to help girls do better in areas like science, mathematics, and engineering.

- True
- False

- c. There are fewer females than males in universities today.

- True
- False

- d. Boys started having problems in school when video games became popular.

- True
- False

e. Boys are discouraged to write about things they may find interesting, such as violence or video games.

- True
- False

f. Boys may conclude that they do not belong in schools due to the number of female teachers.

- True
- False

g. Students who can't read paragraphs by the time they are in the first grade of elementary school are generally put in special reading classes.

- True
- False

h. Educational video games are not engaging boys because they are not very interesting.

- True
- False

i. Attitudes of teachers about boys and their culture are generally quite positive.

- True
- False

--