Script 1: Brand Ad Script (finished video edited by me here)

“(begin with LootCase 3D animation)”

I’m sure you already know...

The Umbreon SIR from Prismatic Evolutions is EVERYONE’s chase card right now.

‘Cause the set just dropped a few weeks ago and the card is already going for over $1500...

(show sunbreon tcgplayer)

But what you might not know...

Is that there’s actually a way to pull it... (show footage of me pulling sunbreon)

Right now.

Without having to fight to find packs at a store near you.

On LootCase.gg you can open digital packs from the comfort of your own home...

And you can redeem the cards you pull to have them shipped to you. (overlay cutout of hand holding physical cards)

Any card you pull from a LootCase is an actual physical card that you can have shipped to you. (show shipping process on site)

Or if you don’t want it...

You can convert it for what it’s worth back into more LootBucks... (show converting process)

And roll again for the card you want! (show reroll animation)

Like this PSA 9 Base Set 2 Charizard... (rolling animation turns to zard)

Or the Giratina V Alt Art.

Or the Gold Star Jolteon.

So many cases to choose from... (showcase all cases)

But my favorite is the Prismatic Evolutions .

But don't sleep on that 151 Chase.

So, will YOU be the one to pull the next GOLD card? (show big chase card)

Crack a case and find out at Lootcase.gg NOW. (show LootCase logo)

Script 2: Star Wars Entertainment Channel Script

"This is a crazy Behind the Scenes Star Wars fact that you NEED to know!

We pick up at the start of The Empire Strikes Back...

Where Luke tells Han he wants to check on a supposed "meteorite" that landed nearby...

Only to be attacked and knocked out by a fearsome creature known as a Wampa.

The Wampa then takes Luke back to its cave to hang him up as a little after dinner snack...

But here's the crazy part...

This scene was actually the result of a serious car accident.

It wasn't even in Lucas's mind for the original film.

You see, shortly after the release of Star Wars...

Mark Hamill got into a car accident that left him with facial injuries.

So to explain the visible changes in Mark's appearance...

Lucas and the team came up with the Wampa attack...

Which not only explains the newfound scars on Luke's face...

But also adds some depth to the character...

Did you know this?"

Script 3: Self-Improvement/Coaching Script

"You're a failure.

But so is everyone else.

Failure is not inherently a bad thing. It's the way you grow.

Every single person that you've looked up to in your life has failed, and failed A LOT.

In fact, the thing that separates the people that ultimately succeed from the ones that don't is simply that they learned and kept going.

So embrace failure.

Don't fear it, run towards it.

Fail fast, figure out why you failed, and do it differently next time.

Keep at it. You'll get there.

And the success will be even sweeter in the context of knowing what it took to get there."

Script 4: Business/Entrepreneurial Script

"You need to be busy to be productive.

But if you think that, you couldn't be more wrong.

Busyness for the sake of filling your calendar with "work" is more of a recipe for burnout than productivity.

And it just leads to overworking and stressing yourself.

Real productivity is about efficient work, not constant work.

Try this: tonight before you go to sleep, think of the most important tasks that you need to do tomorrow.

The things you need to do that move you towards your goal.

For business, these are generally revenue generating activities like getting clients.

For fitness, it could be as simple as getting your workout in.

But whatever the tasks are, write them down, and set it in your mind to wake up and do those first thing.

If you can't do them first thing, then choose the time you'll do them.

Make the commitment to yourself, and keep it.

Give yourself a couple of hours of focused time on these tasks, and then allow yourself grace to pick up where you left off the next day.

You'll find that you not only accomplish more than you thought you would, but you'll also have more time to relax and do other things that you enjoy."

Script 5: Animated Entertainment Channel Script

"Mr Beast: It's all over boys...

Mr Krabs: What's wrong Beastie Boy?

Mr Beast: There's a meteor coming from space...

Squidward: So what?

Mr Beast: It's headed straight for Bikini Bottom!

All (Except Squidward): Oh no!

Squidward: Finally an end to all of you idiots

SpongeBob: BRUH

Mr Beast: Boys there's no time!

I need you each to become superheroes to save Bikini Bottom.

Patrick: I get to be a Soup hero?

Mr Beast: Uhh sure.

The best solution wins the ability to keep living!

And this gift card for unlimited Vbucks.

SpongeBob: Wow! And the viewers can vote for the winner!

Patrick: I know I know!

I'll be Stinko Man, and I can blast the meteor away with my farts after I eat my bowl of soup

Squidward: That's stupid.

I'll become the Clarinet Crusader and make it explode with my beautiful music

Plays horrible Clarinet sounds

Mr Beast: AHH my ears!

Mr Krabs: Look out, the Masked Money Marauder is here! And I have infinite money to bribe the meteor to turn around and leave.

Mr Beast: Alright SpongeBob, you're up!

SpongeBob: I am Bubble Boy!

Watch me blow this bubble to capture the meteor and carry it back out into space!

And if you think I won leave a like and comment!

Patrick: No, subscribe for me!"
