

Email 1 SL: Here is your Free Ebook (the first of many...)

You finally made it here.

Better late than never, right?

You see, this is a secret place...

Only the very top 1% of men have access to this exclusive content...

So... hey, feel lucky to be here!

What were we discussing?

Oh, yeah, I almost forgot...

Here is your ebook → F*ck Jobs

It's been good talking with you...

See you soon?

Email 2 SL: I was out of the game, devastated...

I've always dreamed of becoming a professional basketball player...

You know, all you can expect from a 13 year-old boy really comes down to a few things...

Typical of what a child says or does...

“Mommyyyy, I will be the greatest basketball player of all timeeee!!!”

“Playing basketball is soooooo funny I don’t wanna come home at night!”

But for me, it has never been like that.

My case was a little bit deeper.

Whenever the real world felt too scary for a fragile boy...

That little boy only sought one place: his favorite basketball court.

All those days spent there, with my friends...

I’m sure a few of you know what I’m talking about, even the ones who come from soccer fields...

I CAN FORGIVE YOU.

Anyways, I developed some pretty good skills...

Decent enough to allow me to launch a basketball handling course.

It generated enough money to allow me to start a brand new life, and so, I moved to San Diego...

Little I knew, that would’ve not lasted...

After just a couple of months, here I was, broke once again, back in my mother’s basement...

I thought I had lost it all...

I had just blown the biggest chance I've ever had in my life...

I was out of the game.

Years went by, yet I was still frustrated by that...

I couldn't picture myself living the brokey-life.

I knew I was destined to win, but I couldn't figure out HOW...

I felt like I didn't have the strength to keep going...

I was scared by the possibility of the past repeating itself.

But I couldn't live in the doubt - and thankfully, I didn't.

Because I had just found another way - a STRONGER one - to turn my life upside down.

By the time I was 24, I was finally able once for all to leave my past behind and start - this time for good - the life I DESERVED to live...

And become a millionaire.

Truth be told, I don't think I'm an average man, but I don't think I was born with some gifted skill either...

What allowed me to win at life at just 24 years old was the fact that I had decided to commit to a smart lifestyle, which is something you can do as well.

And today, [Name], I'm going to teach you something that will potentially drive you down the same road I went by.

And, as you decided to stay here, with me, for this long, I'll do it for free.

Find Out the career path to transform your life and make millions.

Email 3 SL: This ONE thing is what keeps 99,9% of men stuck in their office FOR LIFE.

I don't know you that well yet, my friend...

But I'm pretty sure I know your answer to this question...

Have your parents ever asked you:

"What is your dream JOB for when you'll be older?????"

"What JOB do you wanna do???"

"Study, be a good boy and you will surely get a good JOB"

Sooooo booooooringggggg.

Yaaaaaawn...

Oh, I'm sorry.

It's just, everywhere I go, it's all about jobs.

Don't you realize how deeply we are manipulated into living the SAME EXACT LIFE?

From the moment we're born until our last breath, we're taught

- To do the work we must do every day, regardless of how we feel
- To be polite and to be fine with doing what someone else says
- To chase our dream JOB (yes, again) and to work hard for it.

I could go on for days...

You wanna know the craziest part about all of this?
Those teachings may actually be educational and useful...

If only they were applied for the right purpose.

“But, how do we know which one is the right purpose??”

My friend, let me spark up your mind now...

(Stony silence...

Drum roll...)

The one that makes you the protagonist of your life...

Not the one that makes you FEEL like it.

(Gasp!)

To understand this stupid principle, you need to change your mentality...

And so, your environment.

I know, I know...

It's hard to do it on your own...

But hey, this is why I'm here 😊

I've just recorded 5 new videos to help you become your own hero...

And because you're part of this newsletter...

You're gonna have special access to it for FREE.

I'm not that bad of a man, am I?

Achieve the transformation you need to finally live your dream life.

Email 4 SL: Claim your spot in a Forbes article!

Steven Kieth and Kirby Robbins.

“Whoooooooo?????”

Oh, don’t worry about it. They’re just two millionaires students of mine.

Pretty impressive, right?

To add more to the pot...

Forbes - pretty sure you know that name - wrote an article about them.

“But, how is it possible??? I never heard of them!!! Scam!1!1!!”

That is because, as I’ve been teasing for the past few emails...

It doesn’t take much to be like them.

Actually, there are only two things you need:

- The right mindset (which, if you’ve watched my free videocourse, you should already have)
- A helpful guide.

I say this as, today, it’s full of these cheap, scammy gurus on the net...

“John The Moneymaker - My course costs $2000, but for you, it’s only $20!!

No scam, no testimonials either, but hey, you should trust me!!”

What happens to John’s students stays between them.

Because they never get past that mediocre level to even have a say. With me, you can find tons of articles stating how ALL my clients have made their investment back in 30-60 days...

Not to mention the ones who actually chose to put 100% of their energy into my course...

And eventually ended up achieving that result in just a week.

If your PC will crash and explode for the incredible amount of information I'm gonna give you...

(Nothing less than $6000 worth of BONUSES ONLY)

Because really, it's IMPOSSIBLE not to make REAL money if you follow my instructions...

I will refund you every single penny you've paid for my course.

And, of course, what you'll learn during my course will come along with a certification

Now, you can decide to either

- Be a brokie for the rest of your life and live paycheck to paycheck,
- Go and be one of those little worms who evaluate millions of dollars for only 20 bucks...
- Or join the winning team and claim your spot on the next Forbes article, along with thousands and thousands of dollars.

If you decide to make your life a success, the time is NOW:

The 50% discount will end in 48 hours from now.

I wouldn't miss out on this.

Best, Jason.
