

Community Engagement Night

Apr 11, 2023

What's better than a night filled with pancakes, games for kids, and learning for adults?
Not much.

Allen ISD is excited to host our second Community Engagement Night! This event will be held on Tuesday, April 11 from 5:30-8 p.m. at Boon Elementary School (1050 Comanche Dr, Allen, TX 75013). A family-friendly pancake dinner will be served from 5:30 p.m.-6:00 p.m. in the cafeteria for all who attend!

This event is free and open to the public, but registration is required. Click here to register now.

This conference-style event is an opportunity for all community members to hear from district leaders on several important topics, including sessions on:

- A panel hosted by middle school students on what to expect when moving from elementary to 7th grade
- A panel hosted by high school students on tips and tricks for high school success
- What can parents expect at full-day prekindergarten
- School finance 101
- How to get connected with Allen ISD
- What parents need to know about fentanyl

Note: These sessions are intended for a parent audience, but children may attend. Attendees will have the opportunity to visit two out of the six sessions offered.

Limited-Space Childcare Provided with Registration: Children who attend will be offered the chance to attend STEAM break-out sessions led by our Allen ISD STEAM ambassadors from 6:15 pm - 7:40 pm. There are only 30 slots available per age group, so be sure to sign your child up soon before the group is full!

This event is free and open to the public, but registration is required. Click here to register now.
