DIRECTIONS: Read the information below. Click on the hands to learn some hand clapping games and have FUN! There is no google form to fill out this week.

Hi friends! I hope you enjoyed your vacation! I know that I am loving the SNOW this season, are you? Today, we are going to learn about some hand-clapping games. These are activities that you can do with a friend, a sister, a brother, a parent, or a grandparent. AND if no one is around to try it with you, you can always practice with a mirror or wall!

The first one is called, "Miss Mary Mack." There is a pretty good chance that your parents or grandparents have done this before. Click on the HAND below to watch a "Miss Mary Mack" lesson!

The next one is called "Double, Double, This, This!" This one is a pretty easy chant. Once you know how to do it, challenge yourself by making it faster and faster!

Click on the hand below to learn how to do it!

That's it for today. Hey-- if you aren't seeing friends in person right now, why not try this activity with someone on zoom or facetime??? That could be very funny! Have a great week!
