

Could You Lend Me a Smile?

When I open my eyes
I know another day begins, it has
Why am I still here?

Lend me a smile
Could you lend me just one
Just a smile before I'm done

Give me strength to make it through
It doesn't work without you.
Someone walk the extra mile
Could you lend me a smile?

Give me strength to make it through
It doesn't work without you
Someone walk the extra mile
Could you lend me a smile?

Give me strength to make it through
It doesn't work without you
Someone walk the extra mile
Could you lend me a smile?

Give me strength to make it through
Just doesn't work without you
Walk the extra mile
And.. lend me a smile

People all around
All they look is down, and down
Please look at me.

Give me strength to make it through
It doesn't work without you
Someone walk the extra mile
Could you lend me a smile?

Give me strength to make it through
It doesn't work without you
Someone walk the extra mile
Could you lend me a smile?
