

Learn more about supporting your child's

SOCIAL-EMOTIONAL DEVELOPMENT AT OUR FIRST CRANBURY PARENT ACADEMY!

Cranbury families are invited to join us for our first Parent Academy! The ultimate goal of the Parent Academy is to continue to work collaboratively with parents and guardians to help our children to be successful academically, socially, and emotionally. We hope to empower families and support them in being active members of their child's educational journey. Our first Parent Academy event will focus on social-emotional learning and include strategies for supporting your child's social-emotional development at home.

DR. BRIAN EICHERT

Dr. Eichert received his doctorate in school psychology from Rutgers University and currently works in the South Brunswick School District as a behavior specialist. At Rutgers, he worked as an SEL Facilitator and then Project Lead in the Rutgers Social-Emotional and Character Development lab led by Dr. Maurice Elias. Dr. Eichert is also a licensed psychologist and practices at Somerset Psychological Group. There he specializes in working with children, adolescents, and their families experiencing a variety of concerns including behavioral problems, anxiety, and mood disorders. He also has expertise working with adults experiencing difficulties with anxiety and depression and has a special interest in training parents to support their children using principles rooted in Applied Behavior Analysis.
