SL: Porn Addiction Killer

There is one thing porn producers fear because it would stop their sales.

It's brotherhood.

Loners are more likely to indulge in porn, that's why they want us to be alone. They don't want us together, because they know together we are strong.

I have a way for us to combine and as one work towards killing each other's porn addictions. I'll be officially announcing it soon.

P.S. I know some of you want to hide the fact you're addicted, but that's exactly what they want. Don't let them win.

SL: Cure to Incel Virus

Ladies and gentlemen, I have found the cure to the Incel Virus!

According to years of labs and experiments, the cure is:

Brotherhood!

I see lots of you face these kinds of issues by self-isolating yourself and you become desperate.

These kind of coping methods only multiply the Incel Virus. You try to fix it all alone when you should be reaching out for help.

I know reaching out can be scary and embarrassing, so I created a space where we can gather from around the world online and even in person.

Everyone here will have similar problems, so no one can judge each other
