

Lisa L. Heath

Lisa serves as the Director of the Legal Division for a large international union. She has been integral in the development and implementation of strategic legal services for union members, in collaboration with a group of participating employers, such as the Kroger Corporation and Kaiser Permanente. She is an Atlanta, Georgia native and holds a Liberal Arts degree in Political Science from Howard University. She received a Juris Doctor degree from the University of Miami School of Law. Lisa is a subject matter expert in the area of Family Law and is known as the “lawyer that advises other lawyers” in this area of practice. This expertise has driven her interest in film production. She is the producer of a documentary titled “A Fatherless Child – Diary of Absence.” She has continued to create and develop film content for reality television that explores the challenges of absent fathers. Lisa is a public speaker and private parent coach aspiring to restore the honor of fatherhood. Known for her commitment to excellence in all that she does, Lisa is inspiring and motivating to all with whom she interacts.