

1. What do I want to achieve and who do I want to become by the end of 2024?

- I want at the end of the year to have $200,000 in my bank account
- I want at the end of the year to live in Monaco. In a penthouse.
- I want to buy myself a Rolex - Cosmograph Daytona.
- I want to become absolutely disciplined. Doing what I know I need and should do regardless of how I feel AND regardless of what life sends me!

- I want to only fear the Lord, my God - Jesus Christ.
- I want to be more loyal to those I love.

I want them to say at my funeral:

“He was outnumbered by them. They were more than 10. But he was there, with me, and in my defense.”

- I want to become a more humble man by the end of the year.

- I want to become a man who ONLY does honorable things.
- I want to become a man who seeks challenge and hardships.
- I want to become the man who helps the weak.
- I want to become a man that people respect just by his physique.
- I want to become a man who works as hard as humanly possible to get what he wants.

- I want to become a man whose name is known as good by people all around Bulgaria.
- I want to become a man who's loyal to death to his brothers and is willing to take a bullet for them.
- I want to become a man who is willing to sacrifice his life for the life of his loved ones.
- I want to become a man who is willing to die and accept his cross for those whom he values and loves to live for just one more day.
- I want to become a man, whose very word is unbreakable.

I want those I love to look back at the moments we had together and say:

“His word was like a mountain. UNBREAKABLE. He said he’d do X...

And X got done.”

2. Give yourself a strong “WHY?”

- The reason I want to have all those things is because of my mother and my father and my family as a whole.

The reason I want to make them happy is because they don't live the life they want to live and they live in pain.

Both physical and emotional.

- The reason I want to become the man I said I want to become, is because I value loyalty. I respect loyalty and I believe that loyalty is the greatest virtue.

The reason I want to become the man who's willing to die, but save his friends is because of the honor and pride it will bring me.

Because of the good words they'll speak at my funeral.

That's my WHY.

- The reason I want to have all those material possessions, is because I want to look back in the past one day, and remember all those days I grinded to be in that place in the future.

To remember, how at those times pain seemed to be a short-term enemy, but in reality...

It was my biggest friend.

- The reason I want to be where I said I want to be, is because I want to live a better life and I want those whom I love to live a better life.
- I want them to live the life they deserve, not the life that's been given to them, by society.
- Succeeding, or having all that I mentioned, plus a few additional things is the most important thing to me, because...

I have a duty to my bloodline.

I can't sit here lazy knowing that my grand grandfather was in the trenches during WW2.

I cannot imagine what shame he feels every time I make the cowardly choice.

I know he's watching me from Heaven.

So I have a duty...

To him.

A duty to my family, a duty to my ancestors, a duty to my bloodline, a duty to God - Jesus Christ.

I can't allow myself to know that I COULD'VE had all I wanted if I just worked hard for it.

No! - I'm gonna work hard for it in THE NOW!

And I'm willing to work my entire life for it, just to know, I got what I wanted.

3. Commit to give it your all

- Today, on the first of January, 2024...

I commit...

To complete the daily checklist
inside the copywriting bootcamp
EVERY SINGLE DAY...

Without failure.

That's it.

I will not allow myself to have bad days.

I will just do the work.

And I will just stay consistent.

4. Focus ENTIRELY on THE NOW

- It's a choice, so I choose to BELIEVE that I only think about the task at hand and only ACT upon the task at hand.

And I know...

Through this belief...

My actions will be determined.

So, I believe that I'm ONLY able to focus at the task at hand...

AND NOTHING ELSE!

I believe, that I am ONLY able to think about the task at hand...

AND NOTHING ELSE!

5. OODA Loop consistently

- I will ooda loop every single day.
- I believe, that the only way for me to get something that I want in life...

Is through 2 things.

1 - CONSTANT ACTION

2 - OODA LOOPING

6. Commit... BEFORE it comes...

- Today, on January First 2024, I COMMIT...

That regardless of what challenge comes upon me...

Regardless of what mountain God
- Jesus Christ sends me...

I will FIND a way or MAKE a way to defeat it.

7. The Guiding North Star

- WHENEVER I'm faced with a choice of multiple options...

BEFORE PICKING, I will ALWAYS ask myself...

“Which of these options will make me proud THE MOST?”
