

TENEBROSITY TIMELINE

CHAPTER ONE - Vestige: The Events of Spirit vs Glitch Boyfriend happen mostly the same in this until spirit get's the idea to try and use a save file to make a clone ver of himself that he then can use to distract Glitch BF while he gets out of Hating Simulator.

But when he tries to activate the save file however, it doesn't work at first. Spirit then angrily tries to activate the file again and again which just causes the file to start glitching out of control instead. As a resort the save file got misplaced to it being Glitch BF's one now which then started to make many copies of Glitch BF to show up in the game itself.

Before Spirit can even understand what had just happened, he then gets attacked all at once by the copies of Glitch BF's and gets killed.

After that, both the original Glitch BF and his many copies then left the game with the original one returning to his real body (Corrupted BF) while the copies then started to talk one and other on what to do next.

After a bit of talking for a bit. Both Corrupted BF and his Glitch clones then came up with an idea to have a few copies to fuse with the former to form something very powerful to help the Corruption in its goals. (The reason as to why only a few GBF's could fuse with CBF is because the group wasn't sure if CBF body could handle that much power in him if they all try to fuse with him all at once) So a few Glitch BF clones then fused with Corrupted BF which creating the new being called "DESOLEN" out of it.

The remaining GBF's who hadn't merged with CBF decided to fuse themselves to form "AMALGAMT".

After that, the now newly formed Desolen and Amalgamt both have a talk on what to do next. Thanks to the fusing expanding the two's minds compared to the other normal Corrupted. Both of them now aren't a huge fan of how Monster has been leading the Corruption as of late (The guy just hides most of the time like in the events of FCR) And both want him gone so they come up with a plan.

Desolen will go to find where Monster is hiding at and then kill him and Amalgamt will go to where DD and GF are both hiding at and Corrupted them both to have help for backup in case the fight doesn't go well for desolen. The both of them then go off on their goals. However Monster has listened in to what the both of them were planning to do. (Thanks to the whole hive mind thing the Corruption has) Then orders most of the Corrupted near the area to try and kill them both. Desolen easily beats the crowds of Corrupted people that try to fight him off and after a while, finds Monster in the mall where this whole "Corruption" stuff first happened at.

The both of them stared at each other for a bit before they now tried to kill each other. At first things go well for Desolen as Monster doesn't do a lot of damage to him but then monster (Now desperate) begins to force the Corruption in his body to start mutating into a new horrifying form to try and beat Desolen. Now the tables have turned with Monster (Now called Monstrosity) starting to beat Desolen meanwhile, Amalgamt had managed to find both Daddy Dearest and Girlfriend in the stage area and now starts to try and corrupted them both with a new type of Corruption he has (Basically he can turn someone into something kinda like what Wretched Senpai is to give you a idea) all the while both DD and GF try their hardest to fight him off. GF is the first to fall with DD falling shortly afterwards. However then both Corrupted Pico and Corrupted Spooky kids alongside Corrupted Mommy Mearest show up to try and kill Amalgamt but it doesn't go that well for them with CPico later on (As a late resort) tries to throw a grenade at them (Extractor moment lol) but amalgamt just catches it and throws right back at them with the explosion knocking them all out as amalgamt alongside with both Virus GF and Virus DD (That's what I'm calling this new form of the Corruption) go out to try and find Desolen. They find Desolen who's starting to lose to Monstrosity but with the help of Amalgamt with VGF and VDD. Desolen ends up winning the fight against Monstrosity then afterwards kills him and both he and Amalgamt now become the new leaders of the Corruption.

CHAPTER TWO - Ignition: Shortly after the events of Amalgamts battle with CPico CSpookys and CMommny Mearest and the explosion knocking them all out. Both Pico and Pump both wake up in different states of being uncorrupted and looking to be the only ones mostly free of it compared to MM and Skid. Pico being very confused on what's going on before then suddenly getting attacked by a damaged CMM trying to re corrupted him while Pump has to similarly face off with a damaged CSkid. However then suddenly both CMM and CSkid stop in place and now look stunned. (Thanks to Desolen since when he killed Monstrosity, It had broke a link in the Corrupted hive mind that many corrupted shared with Monster that when he was killed, left them all in a stunned state for a bit) Pico not taking any chances, takes Pump by the hand and runs the hell out of the stage area to get as far away from them both as possible. A few days have now passed as both Pico and Pump try to both survive out in the open and avoid any corruption nearby as well. One day, Pump suddenly gets a feeling that he needs to go to the old mansion where he and Skid first met the Eyes of The Universe at. Pump manages to convince Pico to go there to get some help from Eyes so the both of them then go to the graveyard where the mansion is at. But when they get there, Corrupted Kin is there to ambush them both near the graveyard towards the mansion.

Pico tells Pump to run into the mansion while he tries to hold off CKin for as long as he can. Pump just about managed to get into the mansion, then goes off to try and find the basement where Eyes is usually at. However when he finds the entrance to the basement it has been locked up with many different unnatural "locks" on it to try and keep Eyes trapped down there for good. Then suddenly, a bunch of Corrupted Cult members (The ones who are responsible for making the locks) appear to try and corrupt Pump. However doing all this, Pump gets a message sent to his mind thanks to Eyes who tells him what's going on and that he needs to break one of the locks so that then he can give pump a bit of his power to try and help him fight against the Corruption. Pump quickly starts to run towards a big piece of wood on the floor he can use to break one of the more weaker locks on it.

He just about manages to get it while avoiding the Cultists trying to stop him and quickly throws it at one of the weaker looking locks which destroys it and now allows Eyes a chance to give Pump a bit of his power to him. Pump, now getting some of Eyes' power sent to him, uses it to beat and uncorrupted many of the Cult members. After that, he then goes to help Pico who's not doing too well in fighting CKin off since now most of his body has recorruped and he's about to lose to CKin (Not helping the fact that his guns are out of bullets too doing all of that) However! EPump then busts out of the roof of the mansion and goes down near Pico and not only helps him get rid of all the Corruption on him but he also gives pico a bit of Eyes powers as well and then the both of them beat CKin, freeing him for the corruption.

CHAPTER THREE - Bloodshed: We now move back to Desolen and Amalgamt side of the story after becoming the new leaders of the Corruption. The two now continuing the main goal for trying to corrupted everyone in the whole world and there first new target to start corrupting people at (as well as stopping a cure there from getting made after hearing some rumours about it) is the "Restricted Military base" where both sides of Tankman (alongside a few civilians as well who had taking shelter there) have now join up with one another to try and fight off the Corruption and to make sure that cure get's finished up as well.

Unfortunately for the Tankman army however, there not doing so great as they not only have to deal with both Desolen and Amalgamt who are both powerhouses in there own right but they also have to deal with a few corrupted that have been giving a new power up called the "Wraith form" (Alongside the Virus forms too) thanks to Desolen who are now much more harder to fight against as well as dealing with the virus corrupted like types as well.

In the middle of a battle, both Captain John and Steve are trying to fight off Virus Girlfriend and Wraith Darnell as well. At first, things aren't looking too good from them as both are starting to get Corrupted very quickly but then both Private Skittles and a civilian named Whitty (Yes he's in this) join in to help them both and it seems to be working as both VGF and WDarnell are starting to uncorrupted, though that does get stop a bit thanks to Virus Daddy Dearest deciding to join in on the fight after seeing what was going down there.

It goes back and forth for a bit until John, getting really sick of this, decides to use a remote control to make a nearby tank in the area to fire at the trio of Corrupted. However, the power of the blast knocks out both sides instead.

Both John with Steve and Skittles alongside Whitty are all knocked out for the moment and as for the three Corrupted as well. Girlfriend has been mostly freed from it now thanks to the blast, but is knocked out as well for the time being. And as for Wraith Darnell and Virus Daddy Dearest, the both of them are damaged a bit but are still Corrupted with VDD being the only one not unconscious and having decided to dip out to go and look for more people to infect. Whitty is the first to wake up as he now looks around to see what had just happened before he then sees both Desolen and Amalgamt going into the main military base with broken down doors after they both have beaten most of the Tankman army by this point. Whitty runs right towards them both and tries to fight them off. Though the two aren't that interested in wasting time fighting with him, so Desolen decides to call in a special "Friend" to deal with Whitty and who is that special friend? Why it's Monster of course! Well it's really more like his dead remains are being controlled by Desolen himself really. (He give the Wraith form first to monster's dead body as to see how this new " Corrupted power up" of his would work after he had just killed Monster beforehand) Both Desolen and Amalgamt now go off to try and find that cure while Whitty now has to try and fight off the Undead Monstrosity in the meantime.

After a bit of looking around the base for a bit. Both of them have managed to find out where the cure is and then destroy it. However, before they can do anything else. A light blue laser suddenly hit Amalgamt and blasting him through a wall. Desolen quickly looks to where the laser was fired at and he then sees Pico with the power of Eyes in him, holding his gun that had just blasted Amalgamt. The two of them stared at each other down for a bit before they then started to fight one another.

CHAPTER FOUR - Endgame: We now cut to a scene where both John and Steve have finally woken up after getting knocked out thanks to the blast from earlier. Skittles has also woken up, but unlike the others, he is very badly injured thanks to the blast so Steve decided to stay with him for the time being to get some help while John goes to check out what has happened in the battle with the Corrupted while they were knocked out. After walking around in the now mostly empty battlefield for a bit. He then spots what looks to be a now mostly uncorrupted Girlfriend trying to fight off a reawakened Wraith Darnell who's trying to recorrupt her. John quickly joins in help GF fight off WDarnell but even then the two of them are just barely doing any real damage to WDarnell and it looks like they about to lose to him until suddenly a light blue blast hits WDarnell not only knocking him out but getting mostly uncorrupted as well, freeing him.

Both GF and John turn to see a Eyes powered up Pump who looks at them for a bit before flying off to the military base to help out Pico who's now fighting Desolen at. Pump then finds Whitty who's still fighting Undead Monstrosity and joins in to help him finish the Undead off for good.

We then cut back to Pico fighting Desolen as the two hold nothing back with Amalgamt quickly joining back in to help Desolen as well. Both Pump and Whitty after killing Undead Monstrosity, see the battle going on between the three and both of them join in to help Pico in it with Whitty going into he's Ballistic mode to keep up with both Pico and Pump in this fight.

Their battle completely ends up destroying what remains of the military base as the fight now gets taken to the sky's themselves. As the battle goes on, Desolen starts to realise that he and Amalgamt are slowly starting to lose this fight against the trio, so Desolen now has no choice but to fuse together with Amalgamt to form something that can beat the trio. He tells Amalgamt this and the both of them quickly fuse together to form a new powerful form called "IMPERATOR".

Meanwhile, back a few moments before all of that happened. Desolen while in the midden of his fight with Pico, quickly could tell that Eyes was the one powering up Pico so he now realised that the locks that kept Eyes trapped are now starting to break down, so he then orders any Corrupted who were left in the city and those that help him with fighting the Tankman army to go to the mansion to try and stop the now freed Cultists from fully freeing Eyes. So now both Kin and the Cultists have to try and hold them back for as long as they can so that all of the locks can be destroyed.

Kin (Now also powered up with the power of Eyes as well) helps the Cultists fight off many of the Corrupted trying to get into the mansion and does a very good job at it for a while. However then he hears that a few Corrupted have managed to break in and are going down to the basement so Kin quickly moves to stop them and encounters a group near the locked up entrance and in this group was Wraith Skid, Wraith Mommy Mearest and Wraith Nene alongside Virus Daddy Dearest as well. Kin get into a fight with them that lasts a long while but it's one that Kin was slowly winning at since not only had he beat WSkid and WNene and freed them mostly of the corruption on them but both WMM and VDD, while not fully beating, are now too weak to put up much of a good fight anymore. Kin was now going to uncorrupted WMM and VDD fully but then he heard something break and turned to see that the last lock (The rest of the locks were taken off by the Cultists before it was left unfinished thanks to the whole Corrupted attack thing that then happen) on the entrance was now destroyed. Before Kin could think of anything else, a bright blue light then exploded from the entrance which knocked Kin out and the others in the room with him for the time being.

We then move back to see the newly formed Emperor fighting the trio and now the tables have turned with Emperor now the one winning the fight as they all but destroy the trio with Whitty getting fully Corrupted and both Pico and Pump now on the ground, both of them beaten by Emperor. However before Emperor can corrupt them both, they then sense something that's coming right towards them and before they can react to it, they get hit by a power like beam that pushes them right back into a hill nearby before looking to see that it was Eyes of The Universe's doing, now fully freed and ready to fight as well. The two then get into a very long battle as they both hold nothing back as they keep going at it for a long while all around the world then the entire universe and then dropping in and out of different timelines and universes as well. However it's clear to see that Emperor is starting to lose the fight as they move back to the destroyed area where the old mansion used to be.

At this point Eyes is just too strong for them to deal with so Emperor then tries to think of something that could help them win this fight and then they see something that gets their interest. A very damaged Virus Daddy Dearest lying on the ground unconscious after Eyes had broken out of the mansion earlier so Emperor then gets an idea for this before flying off to where VDD is and then outright absorbs him before Eyes could stop them and with the new rush of power they have now thanks to that. They very quickly use this to start powering up a full beam that they then fire at Eyes quickly enough that he doesn't have much time to react to it before getting fully hit by it that deals a very badly damaged wound on Eyes that now leaves him on a very wide destroyed ground he lay at.

Imperator, now seeing this, was fully prepared to finally kill Eyes off, but before they can do anything about that. They then start to feel a pain of sorts that at first starts off small but then gets worse and worse before then suddenly, Imperator defuses with both Amalgamt and Desolen with VDD all sent flying in different areas with Desolen being the most badly damaged out of the bunch. (The reason as to why Imperator defuses is because that Desolen physical body would not be able to handle that much power going through him since he's body still that of a human being after all and while absorbing VDD would have been able to stabilise them and get rid of that flaw. The problem is that they did the fusing with him too fast and then doing that full beam attack at Eyes only lead to there form being very unstable, hence what just happens to them soon after) Eyes seeing what had just happen, quickly uses this a opportunity to open a portal to get himself, Pump and Skid alongside Pico and Kin out of this timeline for a bit since Eyes is now too damaged to stop the Corruption at this point (Until he fully heals that is) So he and other four go then into the portal and leave this timeline to go and recover for a bit in Eyes own pocket dimension he has.

Meanwhile Amalgamt was able to wake up very fast after the defusing had just happened with him being damaged by it, but is mostly ok from it. He had also just about managed to get a quick look at Eyes going into a portal before it closed up. He then quickly starts to look for where Desolen is at and after a bit of looking around, he manages to find him but then sees how badly hurt Desolen really is. Amalgamt then takes him to a safe area to recover for a bit. After a few days, Desolen had fully recovered and after being told by Amalgamt what had just happened a bit ago. Desolen was now determined to go after Eyes and get rid of him for good. The both of them decided to leave this timeline to go after him while they put the now Wraith formed Whitty in charge of the Corruption for a while to make sure that it at least survives there for a bit in their world for now anyways while they're gone.

So Desolen then opens up a portal that he and Amalgamt then enter through it as it closes behind them as the Tenebrosity timeline comes to an end.....for now.
