

Newsletter #1

March 28th, 2023

Welcome and good morning from the "What-The-Fuck" News Station and today we will go over our morning headlines and also a User of the Week nomination. I hope everybody has a good day and let the news roll in!

About Banned Members

Banned members in the forum are total nuisances. They just hold a grudge against the moderators once they step inside the Banned Member Forum. Long time ago, Shazz_ made an announcement about this stating that the main thing to expect would be this singular forum, in which its purpose should be only to appeal your punishment with the moderators. Though, it seems as if the banned members do not care about this at all so he had to bring it up himself. If you want the announcement yourself, it is linked here.

This image above is an example of how not to act towards the forum category. Yes, moderators and administrators do take their time to work inside the forum, so if you are holding a grudge about the ban then it makes them struggle to try to talk to you. Otherwise, you can just use this forum well to take the time to appeal and talk about your actions. ♥

Lara's Story Time

I used to have my pet horse named Sorrell. I lost her because of how much she got transformed. Now, she lives as a human. I miss my horse.

So, it was during a tryout. Sorrell's neck was dislocated. Then, it got fixed. Afterwards, I rode on her back because she is now my pet horse. Then she gets transformed into a horse. We would go everywhere, and I mean all the way inside the spectating rooms and the Skirmish lobby. After, she flinged and we died. Now Sorrell has transformed again. After, she dies and leaves us.

We will never forget you Sorrell. And Zako, I do not forgive you for calling her a demon.

Candy vs. Sorrell: The Sequel

Even though the Army Sergeant Major election ended with Candymad2009 winning, I am going to be writing a novel of Sorrell and Candy fighting altogether. It will be released farther from now, and I hope you enjoy seeing the novel sooner or later.

Do they agree to this? We do not know.

User of the Week nomination list

We are now getting to the User of the Week nominations. If anybody wants to nominate someone to a poll, then do so now! The form is here. Remember, only two people with the most votes can be chosen! Good luck everyone.

Thank you for reading today's newsletter. I hope you have a nice day, stay safe, and do not eat soap!
