

Sky Mart is Now an Authorized Socomore Distributor

Miami, Florida — April 2023 — Sky Mart announces that we are now an authorized distributor for Socomore aerospace products in North, Central and South America.

“Sky Mart is pleased to be officially recognized for our distribution and market expertise in the Americas,” says Ana Maria Robbin, Sky Mart’s Executive Vice President. “This will allow us to stock more product and increase our marketing of the Socomore line.”

While we have been suppliers of Socomore products for years, Sky Mart is proud to make it official and help the Socomore product lines shine to their full potential. As an official distributor, we have access to Socomore’s team of technical experts as well as industry veterans. Together, we will grow their full line of aerospace products that are used at all stages of the manufacturing and maintenance processes.

Sky Mart, headquartered in Miami, Florida is a leading supplier for Aviation Lubricants, Chemicals and MRO Supplies for the last 37 years. With warehouses in Miami, Portland, and San Antonio, we offer convenient shipping through the Americas.
