QUOTE OF THE WEEK

We cannot become what we want by remaining what we are.

All students with an unexcused absence will be given a zero for all work missed. If your absence is the result of a scheduled doctor's appointment, please turn in that documentation to the high school office within 3 days after your return to school.

Coach,

I know I'm not the crew chief for yesterday's game, but I wanted to reach out to you directly. You and your program presented as the class act. Your kids were great and even the best of sportsmen in a game that was not going their way. I was extremely impressed! You, your staff and administration should be very proud. Not just proud of their performance on the field this season but of the quality of their character. I have five sons between the ages of 13-18 and your program is the epitome of what all parents should want their kids to be a part of. Congratulations for what you have built! I hope to see you down the road.

Congratulations to the State Qualifiers from the SHS Cross Country Team!

The SHS Drama Club is presenting two performances this semester.

The first is a musical revue titled All Together Now - A Global Event Celebrating Local Theatre. The cast of 11 will sing songs from musicals such as Willy Wonka & the Chocolate Factory, High School Musical, Fiddler on the Roof, Newsies, Les Miserables, Godspell, Frozen, Rent, and many more. The SHS performances will be November 12th and 13th at 7:00 and November 14th at 2:00. Tickets are $5.

The second production is titled And a Partridge in a Pear Tree. This short play is a collection of 12 two-person scenes, each loosely based on verse from The Twelve Days of Christmas. The events of the play take place in a shopping mall around Christmas-time, telling the stories of a guy with an invisible drum, a medieval restaurant host who won't break character, a milkmaid who just wants to get rid of some cheese, a dancing snowflake in the world's ugliest costume, and many more. The performances are December 3rd and 4th at 7:00 and December 5th at 2:00.
