Mostly when leveling you will be following the main story quests and doing fill in (blue quests) in order to proceed with the purple quests.

FOCUS PURPLE QUESTS

What items to craft

<https://questlog.gg/throne-and-liberty/en/character-builder/BlackGaleAndTheExplosiveShadow>

Craft 4 rings, if you get skill damage boost keep (Trait) otherwise - just turn the 4 in this lithograph (Violent signet ring on Global) and craft a Impact ring (Formerly Crude flame ring)

Please note most people complete this within 6 hours. Krix (experienced speed runner has completed it in 3 hours.

For stats - Level pure dex it helps you proceed very fast quickly due to the added crit. Keep stacking dex gear until you're at 40 dex then put the rest into perception.

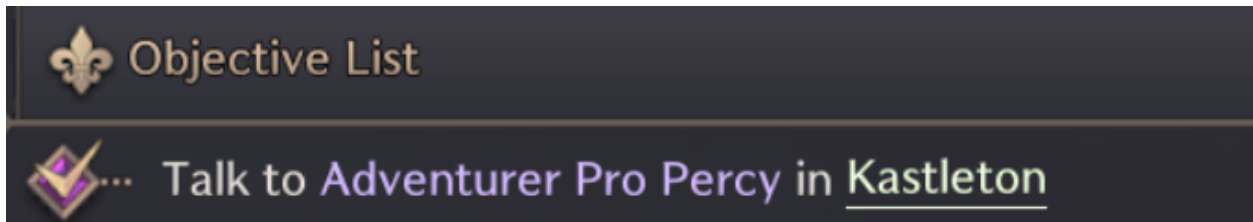

After the first waypoint in Golden rye pasture do these first 3, they are very easy to complete alongside the main story quest and take 30 seconds at most.

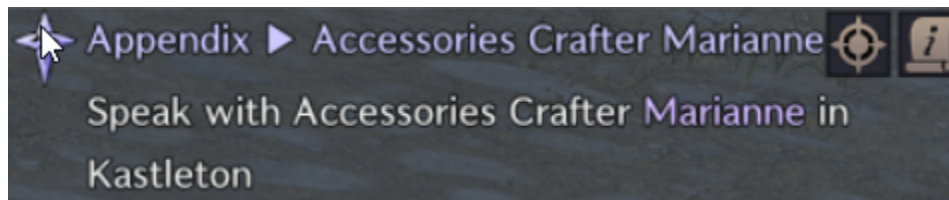

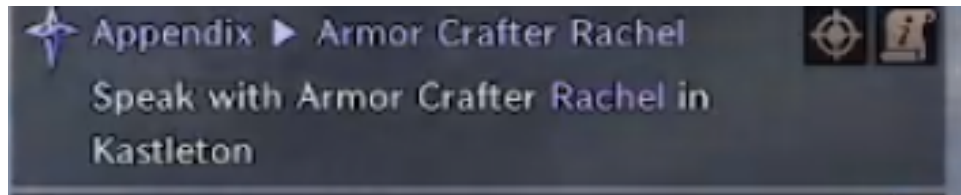

- First Bottle neck could be level 11->12

(This currently does not happen on Global Release)

One quest you should definitely complete even if you don't hit the bottleneck is

This is part of the amitoi adventurer - auto farmer - This allows you to send out extra Amitoi to farm crafting materials for you passively.

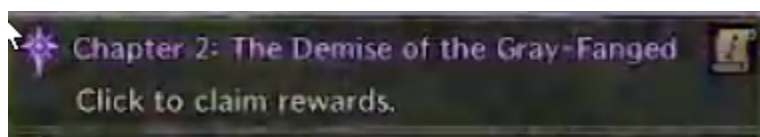

Make sure you complete the Appendix crafts, they are also important. Doing this right after completion of the “henry wolf quest” is ideal. The actual name of the quest is the demise of gray-fang.

*Note this is where you go all the way up the area behind Kastleton and move down the mountain to protect the children.

After completion of this chapter you MUST be level 12 in order to continue.

In the next zone - the starlight observatory area, there's a quest and the easiest way to tell what the goblins are doing is just match their color.

The nesting grounds.

After starlight, when you are doing the main story quest for Nesting grounds there are two easy blue quests to help with the next bottle neck.

The first one being to kill the chief terror bird, then pick 1 herb if you can, Don't do the rest.

Complete the whole chase the elemental tree quest.

The level 21 Bottleneck

Upon reaching 20-22 you might hit the next bottle neck. Luckily there are quite a few quests in this area that you can complete quickly.

Monolith wastelands

Complete all the keepsakes in the sand - if the last part is out of the way you may skip it.

Complete all of the “Dastardly Morti guild”

Dastardly Morti Guild

- 1/1 | Talk to the Scared Resistance Soldier near Taras Memorial Hall

Icon	EXP	Resource
	5,903	8,168
	7,315	10,123
	6,541	9,052
	7,954	11,007
	38,470	53,237
	7,500	10,379

Keep pushing the main story quest until you hit the next bottleneck.

Level 26 bottleneck (you need level 28 to proceed)

Abandoned Stonemason

So the next area has 3 quests to complete, but you need to do the “talk to golem crafter FIRST” as it unlocks the “kill giant crystal scorpion quest” - this allows you to skip killing it twice as one of the exploration quests you already have requires it as well.

“Powerless little friend”

For this one just do the first part, you shouldn't need to do the next quests unless you skipped something.

The “Vitality Masses” part takes way too much time to complete and isn't worth it.

This is why you talk to the golem crafter first.

Do both these Quests, including killing the basilisk.

Make sure you go to the Moonlight desert next and NOT sandworm lair yet.

Moonlight desert

One thing important to note in this first quest (Queen's Blessing) is that you are ONLY collecting the star trees, and skipping the rest.

Complete all of these others.

These are all quick and easy to complete.

Sandworm lair

The minimum level for this area is 30

EXP

EXP required to level up your character

Please note you don't need the 25 ants here.

If you're still stuck and not level 32 at this point -

Do Taedal's tower which can be found through solo dungeon menu.

Day Break Shore.

Depending on if it's night or day - there are a few quests you might have to skip.

Don't bother killing too many sea crabs if the item doesn't drop and obviously you can only turn it in at night. Please note if you're having trouble getting up the mast you can turn into a spider and climb up it easily.

Make sure you have full stamina before you do this one.

If you're not quick enough on this one you might have to try it twice.

Please note on this, you can only defeat the starlight firefly's at night.

\

The Raging wilds

These are all pretty straightforward

Only do these two (the temitran chief and stone golem chief) if you skipped other quests, such as the night time ones.

Note - you can climb up to the top of the giant ring and just glide to the island. Otherwise you need two people or to be very fast

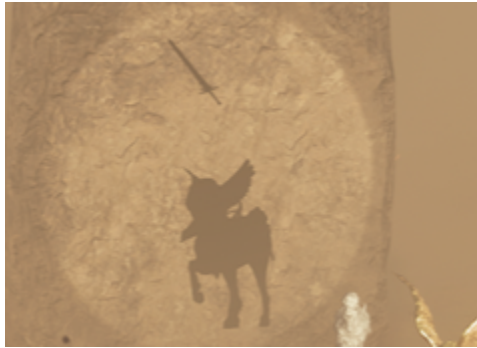

Manawastes

The only one you do here is grab the two horns by where malakar spawns. I'm not 100% sure if these will be up otherwise you might have to kill the evil eye sentry or do the puzzles.

Tips for the puzzles

Make it look like a unicorn

- 1) Horse faces left
- 2) The hawk is the wings
- 3) The sword will be the horn

Music crystals - left to right -

2 - 5 - 6 - 4 - 3 - 1 - 3 - 2

The golem puzzle again left to right. 4 - 5 - 3 - 3 - 5

If you are BAD at jumping puzzles- do the elemental tree here in this zone as well “to the highest point”

Akidu Valley Exploration Codex

Minimum level is 41, but you should probably be closer to 44 if you've done all the purple up to this point.

Again if you are bad at jumping puzzles go back and do more mana waste quests. If you have high ping you might want to avoid this one. If you have problems rubberbanding there is sometimes a memory leak in this area - rebooting your game helps a lot.

Still not 45?

Do the pick black manastone - and interact with the drawbridge

You can also eat the orc shadow elder but I'd recommend bringing a friend.
