

Maps of Maycomb

This is an ENG1D class activity for To Kill a Mockingbird. Students are tasked with individual accountability by contributing their ideas in their own marker colour. The groups had to make a map of Maycomb using the text. They drew images AND supported their locations with quotations from the novel.

Each placement required a reasoned justification and prompted discussion amongst the group members.