

Session 11:

Exploring the Role of Stakeholders in M&E Education

This session will delve into the crucial role that various stakeholders play in shaping the success of Monitoring & Evaluation education. It will explore their strengths and capacities for supporting educational initiatives, while highlighting effective strategies for building strong partnerships across the sector.

Featuring:

- ♦ Marco Segone, Director, UNFPA Independent Evaluation Office
- ♦ Prof. Yoko Ishida, President Asia Pacific Evaluation Association

Radhika Abeynaike, Senior Programme Manager of Monitoring, Evaluation, Research, and Learning, The Asia Foundation, Sri Lanka

- ♦ Prof. Nathalie Holvoet, Professor and Chair, Institute of Development Policy, University of Antwerp, Belgium
- ♦ Abinash Dash, Director, Development Monitoring and Evaluation Office, NITI Aayog, Government of India
- ♦ Dr. Shyam Singh, Chair, Consortium of Institutions on M&E Education in Asia Pacific and Professor of Social Sciences, Institute of Rural Management Anand, India

The discussion will provide valuable insights into how collaboration can drive progress and enhance the impact of M&E education globally. This session is an essential exploration of the pathways that will guide M&E education toward a more connected and impactful future.

#MnEsymposium #MnEeducation #EvalVisionAsia #Eval4Action