Treasury: Jennifer Gibbons

- Budget and Budget Approval for October meeting.

Grounds: Christine Erickson & Esther O'Donnell

- Grounds clean-up was a big success. About 25 volunteers showed up, lots of big tools and the Sindt family brought a gator which was awesome! We hauled all debris away to avoid it sitting there for a while. We did do more than just "our" gardens: wanted the school entry to look good all around. Christine and Esther will keep an eye on weeds during fall. Also working on a sign for the new North entry garden with donor recognition. We will probably plant some plants in the pool garden in fall to fill empty spots. No larger fall cleanup needed. Fall maintenance. Large cleanup in spring.

Hospitality: Leah Sloan, Marcy Pease, Sandy Scaia

- Conference Tailgate Party. This will be our first event of the year for Hospitality! We will be hosting a tailgate themed event for our wonderful WHS staff! We will be sending out a Signup genius soon for those who wish to donate items or volunteer time for this event. Tentative date will be October 13th. We can't wait! Snack table went well at Warrior Walkthrough.

Warrior Closet: Amy Rouse

- The Warrior Closet is a free closet of items for our students. These items are available to all of our students. We have all sorts of things that our Warriors may need throughout their day!
- A HUGE THANK YOU to those that came and helped clean out and organize the closet now that it is in its new space! It was super helpful!!!
- There is currently a Donors Choose page open for the closet if anyone is interested in donating to help us get a few more items that are needed. That link is Warrior Closet Donors Choose Link.
- For those who may not know what the closet is, here is some info on the items we accept/have available! Warrior Closet Doc

College Connections: Becky Lindwall Notes with Counseling

- Warrior Connect is planning to have its College Connection again during the second period on the last Tuesday of December (12/23) before winter break. We will again be in the Main Auditorium and feature a panel of about 8-12 recent WHS grads who can take questions about their college/trade school programs and experiences. Getting students who are back in time can be tricky as sometimes they are still taking finals, but usually we have at least eight who make it, and while most are just past year's grads, we also have enjoyed a range of ages so that they are necessarily all freshmen.

- As with the last three years, a Google invite will be sent to current sophs, juniors and seniors after Thanksgiving break. Those interested can RSVP their intended attendance and also submit questions about college in advance. (Teachers have to excuse them based on passing grades and assuming they don't have a test/final that day). Counseling has done a terrific job moderating this event in the past, and Becky will connect with that office soon to confirm it works again for a counselor to moderate the event.
- Event features about 30 minutes of Q&A from the submitted questions, after which live questions can be asked and then WHS students may come visit with grads in person in front of the stage.
- Becky will be checking with the Activities Office to be sure the Main Aud is again available this year for the event. It is usually the same day as the winter choir concert, but panel members just sit at the edge of the stage so there is not any interference with the risers. Julia stated that they used to do a meal before covid.
