

[Rock, guitar-heavy music playing lightly in the background.]

Narrator: "Almond Joys used to make me happy. But you know what didn't make me happy?! The way they blew up my belly!"

Narrator: "It completely took all the joy out of all my Almond Joys." [Narrator exaggerated, funny angry/sad tone!]

[Narrator has a handful of Almond Joys and angrily throws them on the ground!]

Narrator: "That's okay though." [Cheesy-calm tone]

[Heavenly epiphony-like music plays for a second.]

Narrator: Because now I don't need Almond Joys to make me happy. I love balls now. Balls are all I want."

Narrator: "They bring me joy without the fat."

[Narrator holds up two bags of Sassy Ball's Joy of Almonds flavor (one bag in each hand.)]

Narrator: "BE HOLD! Sassy Balls' Joy of Almond Balls!"

Narrator: "These are everything you want in an Almond Joy without all those sketchy ingredients."

[Narrator does not need to be holding the two bags anymore.]

Narrator: "Did you know that a single Almond Joy has PGPR, hydrolyzed milk protein, and sodium metabisulfite?!"

[Narrator can butcher these names for comedic purposes!]

Narrator: "Like what the hell even are those?! I don't freakin' know. Do you?! No, you don't."

Narrator: "Bye-bye Almond Joys, hello Sassy Balls!"

Narrator: Made with simple quality ingredients you can actually pronounce!

Narrator: Almonds, dates, shredded unsweetened coconut, and monk fruit.

Narrator: "There's nothing but great stuff in these deliciously tasting balls. And they taste exactly like this Almond Joy. Hell, maybe even better!"

[Holding up a single Almond Joy, then tossing it behind your shoulder while holding up a bag of Sassy Balls Joy of Almonds.]

Narrator: "Sassy Balls' Joy of Almonds are a game changer for those of you who just can't shake off that sweet chocolate and almond craving."

Narrator: "Lacking the balls to make healthier choices? Grab ours today."
