- Had less than 2 dozen left over at the end. The leftovers were put in the teacher's lounge
- Feedback:
 - o need tongs for next year to use when packaging them for customers
 - o possibly need to increase the price next year if we use Hurts Donuts again
 - o much discussion on if we would do pre-sales of Krispy Kreme Donuts or do the same as this year with Hurts Donuts.

Classroom signs:

- Carolyn painted the names and got the signs finished up
- All new signs are hung up for the new teachers

Blanket Sales:

- So far, the sales at the warm football games has not gone over well. However, there is hope of getting some sales at cold football games. It was decided to for sure sell them at Homecoming with hopefully lots of extra people at that game. Missy Rhinehart will sell blankets at Homecoming game.
- It was also discussed about doing a blanket raffle. Possibly starting this around basketball and wrestling season.

- Melissa Henstorf is going to verify when our dates to sell cupcakes. Around January or February.

- It was feedback from the group that people would like for PHT to do another clothing sale. Christin is going to work on this with Live Now in Brooklyn and see if we can get it started in October to be able to advertise as buying Christmas gifts.
