Info

This is the whole situation with KeelisMilkies344. They have a Deviantart and Twitter, and their discord is this:

Below is the explanation I sent PayPal. Keelis commissioned a comic, I was doing the comic, they broke my TOS, then tried to force a refund.

The Explanation

Recommended Read order:

- 1) Initial conflict
- 2) TOS
- 3) Inflate docx
- 4) Proof 1-4
- 5) Termination Email

“Censored” means I redacted emails and invoice links that could doxx people.

Current Events

On the morning of March 10th, I learned three of the four disputed invoices went in Keelis’ favor:

As of now, it looks like I'll need to pay Paypal around $600 (the original total + refund fees). If this doesn't happen, the debt will go to collections and get much worse.

How to Help

- Please spread what Keelis did as far as you can. They'll scam more if they get off scott free.
- If you can spare some cash, commission me or join my patreon. All cash will go to PayPal.
- Remain respectful when discussing this topic. Do not harass anyone.
