

Latino Medical Student Association

Founded to represent, support, educate, and unify Latino Medical Students

Dear Prospective LMSA Chapter Advisor,

Thank you so much for considering being an advisor for your school's LMSA chapter. The Latino Medical Student Association (LMSA) is a national, medical student-run organization that promotes leadership and diversity in health care through service, mentorship, and education to advocate for Latino health care and Latino health care professionals. We greatly appreciate you for supporting the students at your school as they try to bring awareness and support for Latino healthcare and healthcare professionals.

The degree of your involvement will be decided between you, the bylaws of your school, and your school's chapter. By signing below, you agree to be the faculty advisor for the LMSA chapter at your school.

I _____ (print name) agree to be the faculty advisor of the LMSA chapter at _____ (school's name).

Signature of advisor

Date

If you have any questions, please feel free to email me at membership@lmsa.net.

Once again thank you so much for advising your school's LMSA chapter and keeping your efforts focused on the needs of future health care providers and the Latino community.

Sincerely,

National Chief Development Officers