

Privacy Policy – Dragon Fire Quest

Last updated: 8 December 2025

This Privacy Policy explains how Dragon Fire Quest (“the Game”, “we”, “us”, or “our”) handles information when you play our mobile game.

By installing or playing the Game, you agree to the practices described in this Privacy Policy.

1. Information We Collect

1.1. Information you provide directly

We do not require you to create an account or provide your name, phone number, or address to play the Game.

The only time we receive personal information directly from you is if you choose to contact us by email. In that case we will receive your email address and any information you include in your message.

1.2. Information collected automatically

When you play the Game, some information may be collected automatically through third-party services (for example, for ads and analytics). This may include:

- Device information (model, operating system, language, country/region)
- IP address and approximate location (country or city level)
- In-game activity (levels played, session length, crashes and errors)
- Advertising identifiers (such as Google Advertising ID)

We use this information to improve the Game, fix bugs and show non-personalized or personalized ads depending on your settings and local law.

2. Third-Party Services

The Game may use the following third-party services:

- Google AdMob – to display banner and rewarded ads
- Google Play Services / Google Play Games – for achievements, leaderboards and basic analytics (if enabled)

These services may collect and process data in accordance with their own privacy policies. We recommend you review them:

- Google Privacy Policy: <https://policies.google.com/privacy>

We do not control how these third parties use the data they collect.

3. How We Use Information

We use collected information to:

- Operate and improve the Game
- Fix technical issues and prevent cheating or abuse
- Show ads (including rewarded ads)
- Understand how players use the Game (for example, which levels are too hard)

We do not sell your personal information.

4. Children's Privacy

The Game is not intended for children under 13 years of age.

We do not knowingly collect personal information from children under 13.

If you are a parent or guardian and believe your child has provided personal information to us, please contact us at sega23700@gmail.com and we will delete the information as soon as reasonably possible.

5. Data Retention

We keep information collected through third-party services for as long as necessary for the purposes described above or as required by those services' own policies.

If you contact us by email, we may keep your message for a reasonable time to help you with your request and maintain records.

6. Your Choices

Depending on your device and region, you may be able to:

- Reset your advertising ID in your device settings
- Limit ad tracking or opt out of personalized ads in your device settings
- Turn off internet access to play offline (this may disable ads, leaderboards, and some features)

You can also uninstall the Game at any time, which stops all further data collection by the Game itself.

7. Security

We use reasonable technical and organizational measures to protect your information. However, no method of transmission or storage is 100% secure, and we cannot guarantee absolute security.

8. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time.

When we do, we will change the “Last updated” date at the top of this page. The new policy will apply as soon as it is posted.

9. Contact Us
