

Invocation – 100th Anniversary Celebration

As we gather this evening to celebrate 100 years of Rotary, let us pause to reflect on the enduring spirit that has brought us together—across generations, across clubs, and across time.

We give thanks for the fellowship that has connected so many lives: past members, present members, and friends who share in the values of service above self. May this occasion be one of renewed friendships, meaningful conversations, and a deep appreciation for the legacy we inherit and the future we continue to shape.

Let us be mindful of those who came before us, whose dedication and vision built the foundation we stand on today. And let us be inspired, in their spirit, to carry forward the principles of integrity, service, and community.

As we reconnect and celebrate together, may our time be filled with warmth, gratitude, and a shared commitment to making a difference—both now and in the years to come.

Thank you.
