

Civic Superhero Toolbox

ColoradoSprings.gov – The City’s primary engagement tool, with news releases and alerts, City job information, Transit, Parks, and Airport central location

FlyCOS.com – airport website, flights, delays, promotional efforts, and information about the operations of COS

GoCoSprings Mobile App- the power tool for Colorado Springs residents. Report a pothole or other roadway issue, clogged storm drain, check airport status, or get information on City news and events. <http://coloradosprings.gov/gocosprings>

Legistar: watch live and archived City Council meetings, set alerts to get notified when items you care about come before City Council, share video from important public meetings to your social networks. <http://coloradosprings.gov/legislation>

Colorado Open Records Act (CORA) - In accordance with the Colorado Open Records Act (CORA), the City of Colorado Springs is happy to assist with requests for the City’s public records. As permitted under Colorado State Law, the City does charge a nominal fee for CORA requests. <https://coloradosprings.gov/CORA>

SpringsTV 18 - view videos produced by the SpringsTV 18 studio. View City videos at <https://coloradosprings.gov/SpringsTV18>. online streaming player for SpringsTV18 at www.coloradosprings.gov/live

Cone Zone map - www.coloradosprings.gov/conezones - lists all roadway construction projects (permitted projects) taking place around the city.

Waze mobile app (not City-owned, but uses City data)- Navigation app with crowdsourced content. The City of Colorado Springs provides information on planned roadway construction projects and other traffic impacts for Waze users. Download the Waze app on your device’s app store or view online at www.waze.com

Public Works Project Map - Massive map with all of the City’s completed, in-progress, and planned projects. Lots of information, takes time to load, but worth it for all the incredible insight citizens can gain. <http://bit.ly/COSPWprojects>

SpeakUp! COS – Interactive online platform for surveys, discussions, and forums for the City to gauge sentiment, solicit ideas, and engage with citizens around issues of importance to our community. Register for an account (providing demographic info is voluntary) to participate and make your voice heard. <http://www.coloradosprings.gov/SpeakUp>

Textizen -- Text-based citizen survey and interaction platform. <https://www.textizen.com>

OpenBudget COS -- Financial Transparency & Data Visualization tool. `Explore and interact with City finances. Share data visualizations with stakeholders and social networks. Download or link to City finance data as up-to-date as the last closed month of City Finances.

<https://coloradosprings.gov/OpenBook>

OpenDataCOS -- The City of Colorado Springs provides this open data portal to support transparency and accountability, but also to give the public access to one of our most important assets: Public Data. data.coloradosprings.gov

City Clerk Documents Search -- Search historical records, scanned documents, and other important pieces of the City of Colorado Springs history.

<https://www.coloradosprings.gov/citydocs>