

Ticketing Terms

The website at <http://abingdonschool.savoyssystems.co.uk/> (our website) is owned by Savoy Systems and operated by Abingdon School ('we') both for Abingdon School and Abingdon School Enterprises Limited (trading as 'Abingdon Sports and Leisure').

From this point forward, Abingdon School will also include Abingdon Sports and Leisure.

For further details about Abingdon School and Abingdon Sports and Leisure, please see the end of these terms.

Part 1 of these terms sets out the terms that apply to all tickets purchased from Abingdon School in person, by telephone or online.

Part 2 of these terms sets out the additional terms that apply to tickets purchased from the Abingdon School website.

Part 3 of these terms sets out the terms that apply to all tickets purchased from Abingdon School for events organised by Abingdon School whether in person, by telephone or online.

Part 4 of these terms sets out additional terms that apply to tickets purchased for events which are not organised by Abingdon School but by Third Parties.

These terms and conditions apply to tickets for performances and events and references in these terms to 'performances' will also include events.

ABINGDON

Part 1: Terms that apply to all tickets purchased from Abingdon School for events whether in person, by telephone or online.

Ticket discounts

- All ticket discounts are subject to limited availability and at the discretion of the Box Office. Discounted tickets cannot be booked in conjunction with or combined with any other reductions or offers.

Rules of admission

- You need a valid ticket which must be produced on arrival in order to enter the auditorium.
- The paper ticket remains the property of Abingdon School.
- Please check carefully the theatre, date and time printed on the front of your ticket as mistakes cannot always be rectified after the booking has been confirmed.
- The advertised running time may change so please check with the Box Office on the day of the performance.
- We reserve the right to refuse admission in reasonable circumstances or to request any ticket holder to leave the theatre and take appropriate action to enforce this right.
- If you arrive later than the advertised start time or you need to leave the auditorium for any reason then you may be asked to wait until a suitable break in the performance before you can take your seat. This may be the interval. For some events, latecomers may be refused entry.
- To ensure our audience safety Abingdon School may conduct occasional security searches which may include searching your bag before entering the auditorium.
- In the event of a cancelled performance or a performance that has to be abandoned part way through, we will not be liable for additional travel or accommodation expenses.
- Reselling your ticket for profit or commercial gain makes it void.
- We reserve the right to make alteration to the advertised details for the performance at short notice (for example cast changes). In these instances 'Abingdon School' is not obliged to refund the ticket or exchange for another performance.
- On rare occasions the performance or public areas may be filmed, sound recorded or photographed.
- We cannot be held responsible for the loss or damage to your personal property whilst at the venue.
- The unauthorised use of cameras, videos or any other sort of audio or visual recording equipment is strictly forbidden.

ABINGDON

- Mobile phones, pagers and digital watches must be turned off at all times in the auditorium.
- Strobe lighting, smoke effects (including smoking on stage), loud bangs and gunshots are sometimes used in productions. Please contact the Box Office after the press performance for further details.
- For Health & Safety reasons, wheelchair users are not permitted to transfer into fixed seating.
- You may not take drinks in glasses into the auditorium. Plastic cups are available for any cold drinks and may be taken in.
- By purchasing a ticket, you have read and understood the Privacy Policy listed on the website.

Our liability

- Our liability to you with regards to the event (whether in contract, tort (including negligence) or otherwise) is limited to the purchase price of the Tickets you have purchased.
- In the unfortunate event that a performance has to be cancelled or abandoned part way through, we will not be liable for any accommodation, travel or other costs you incur.
- We will not accept liability for any indirect, special or consequential losses, including (for example) loss of profits, revenue, contracts, data or goodwill.
- These terms of use do not affect your statutory rights as a consumer.
- Nothing in these terms limits our liability for death or personal injury caused by our negligence or for any other matter for which it would be illegal for us to limit, or attempt to limit, our liability.

Written communications

- Applicable laws require that some of the information or communications we send to you should be in writing. When using our website, you accept that communication with us will be mainly electronic.
- We will contact you by email or provide you with information by posting notices on our website.
- For contractual purposes, you agree to this electronic means of communication and you acknowledge that all contracts, notices, information and other communications that we provide to you electronically comply with any legal requirement that such communications be in writing.
- This section does not affect your statutory rights.

Notices

ABINGDON

All notices given by you to us must be given to Abingdon School, Park Road, Abingdon, Oxon, OX14 1DE or by email to boxoffice@abingdon.org.uk . We may give notice to you at either the email or postal address you provide to us when placing an order, or in any of the ways specified in section 7 above.

Notice will be deemed received and properly served immediately when posted on our website, 24 hours after an email is sent, or three days after the date of posting of any letter.

In proving the service of any notice, it will be sufficient to prove, in the case of a letter, that such letter was properly addressed, stamped and placed in the post and, in the case of an email that such email was sent to the specified email address of the addressee.

Events outside our control

- We will not be liable or responsible for any failure to perform, or delay in performance of, any of our obligations that is caused by events outside our reasonable control (Force Majeure Event).
- A Force Majeure Event includes any act, event, omission or accident beyond our reasonable control and includes (as well as others) such things as: terrorist attack, fire, flood or natural disaster, epidemics, impossibility of the use of means of public or private transport, or public or private telecommunications networks or the threat of any of these things.
- If a Force Majeure Event occurs, we may have to cancel a performance or abandon it part way through and our obligations to you are deemed to be suspended for the period that the Force Majeure Event continues. We will use our reasonable endeavours to bring the Force Majeure Event to a close or to find a solution by which our obligations may be performed despite the Force Majeure Event.

How the contract is formed between you and us

- After placing an order, you will receive an email from us acknowledging that we have received your order and confirming whether or not we can accept that order. The contract between us (Contract) will be formed when we send you an acknowledgement email which confirms our acceptance of your offer to purchase the Tickets.
- The Contract will relate only to those Tickets indicated in the acknowledgement email. We will not be obliged to supply any other Tickets which may have been part of your order until acceptance of your order for those tickets has been confirmed in a separate acknowledgement email.

ABINGDON

Other Matters

- We may transfer, assign, charge, sub-contract or otherwise dispose of any Contract at any time, but you may not do so without our prior written consent.
- If we fail to exercise any of our rights under any Contract, this will not amount to a waiver by us of those rights.
- If any part of these terms or of any Contract is unenforceable, this will not affect the enforceability of any other part.
- We intend to rely upon these terms and any document expressly referred to in them in relation to the subject matter of any Contract.
- Part 1, Part 2, Part 3 and Part 4 of these terms, together with any document referred to in these terms, constitute the whole agreement between you and us.

Changes

- We may revise these terms of use at any time by amending this page. You should check this page from time to time to take notice of any changes we have made, as they are binding on you.
- Any Contract will be subject to the terms in force at the time that you order Tickets from us, unless any change to these terms is required to be made by law or governmental authority (in which case it may apply to orders previously placed by you).

Law and jurisdiction

- These terms and Contracts for the purchase of Tickets through our website will be governed by English law. Any dispute over or claims arising from these terms or any Contracts will be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts, although we retain the right to bring proceedings against you for breaking these terms or any Contract in your country of residence or any other relevant country.
