Presenter(s)	Liz Hembekides (USA) Hannah Park (USA) Kathy Vucekovich (USA) Brigitte Schauwienold (Germany) Ronke Odejimi (Nigeria) Stephanie Bekit (Canada)
Promotional message	Calling all women from every generation to share in a laid-back, coffee-clutching, open conversation about how we can better love and support one another as we run the race of faith. This is NOT an educational lecture but a casual gathering where we can learn about and from one another. Bring your favorite drink, your comfiest shoes, and an open heart!
Abstract	Our UBF ministry is blessed with many mature, God-fearing women who now find themselves unsure about how to serve best. At the same time, we have a generation of eager, God-fearing younger women who are serving and struggling to find their role in our UBF context. Clearly, we need one another. But all too often, life gets in the way, preventing us from connecting deeply and empathetically over our most pressing concerns. We want to provide that space here. We encourage our sisters, young and old, to articulate their needs in a safe, supportive environment where they will be seen, heard, and understood. This is a great opportunity to have honest, heart-felt dialogue about our hopes, fears, and everything in between. All questions are welcome! Come ready to talk … and listen!
Special note	Have you ever wanted to form a nurturing, supportive community among the women in our ministry but never had the opportunity to do so? Now is our chance! We are blessed with sisters from every background and age group from whom we can learn so much. Let’s make some space to listen to, lift up, and love one another well.
