Technology (Mr. T)	We will create a new FONT!	A font is a collection of characters with a similar design. Did you know that all the fonts you know and use were made up by someone? Try creating your own. Create a chart with a blank space for every uppercase letter and a lowercase letter. Remember to include the numbers, punctuation, and special characters. What will you name your font?	Class website
Library (Mrs. Farmer)	We will learn about the Galveston Hurricane and create a primary source.	It's September 8, 1900. You live on the coast in Galveston, Texas. It's a busy, wealthy city. But today, the winds pick up, waves are rising and you know something is coming If you have the Epic ebook app (it's free to sign up!) search for the graphic novel: Surviving The Galveston Hurricane. Why is it easier to track hurricanes now versus in 1900? If you can't get onto the ebook, check out this site with primary sources (first hand accounts, like letters and pictures). Pretend you just lived through the Galveston hurricane. Write a letter to a friend in another city. Explain what happened. Give details. Remember, there was no TV in 1900!	Check with your child's teacher on how to get Free access to Epic until June 30th.

Music (Mrs. Wilson)	We will connect music to our life.	Soundtrack of my life: Make a list of 10 songs that will be the soundtrack for your life. Songs could describe your personality, your age, your family, your interests. Example: If you are a happy person, maybe you could pick the song Happy for your soundtrack or if you used to play with Ponies, pick the My Little Pony theme song.:) Extra Credit: Create an album cover (draw or design on the computer). Library (Mrs. Farmer)	We will create our own poetry with book spines.	April is poetry month! To celebrate, let's create some of our own poetry using books in our house (yes, cookbooks count!) Stack the books with the spine facing towards you. The top book's title should be the first line of your poem. Continue going down the books using the titles on the spine to create your own unique poem! See an example on Google Classroom and FlipGrid (under classwork),	Library Google Classroom Page (contact Mrs. Farmer for the code or check Dojo). Extra Fun: Go onto PebbleGoNext through Classlink and answer these questions: Dogs and what other animal do not have sweat glands? What are 3 problems with living in a city?
