Under the Declaration of Independence, we the people have the right to remove our servants for creating bad laws. We've been infiltrated by a de facto government. Deb this is still a constitutional republic. The constitution is the supreme law of the land, every law which violates the constitution is null and void per Marbury vs Madison. You violated your oath to the constitution by trying to push this law.
I call for your arrest, I'm making you famous in the process. Your picture is being shared among thousands, including the trucker movement.
I don't think you're awake enough to understand what's really going on in the world. Nuremberg trials have already begun, but I bet you weren't aware of that either, were you? Your lack of knowledge of our constitution tells me you're a oligarch. We're coming.... I'm going to make sure you're arrested for trying to pass this law.

Joy Shea We the people have a lot of power, they thought we forgot. I sent her information to the military, as well. They've been watching these people for a few years now. Easy bait.

Have you ever wondered why, when the pandemic began, people bought out every gun and ammunition store in the country? They saw this coming and they prepared. Want some advice? Pull this pile of crap that is masquerading as legislation NOW. Nobody is going to let you forcibly quarantine them and no LEO's are going to enforce it. Stop the tyranny now.
