

TERMS OF SERVICE

Welcome to the TOS

My terms are simple, you here are a step closer to asking for my skills to make what you desire and trusting me to do it to the best of my abilities.

I have a simple list of WONTs... and OKAYS... i will never do anything that's too disturbing and graphic, that is very generic, however if you are a common person you will understand what's disturbing and wrong. True there may be some... risky things again i will let ya know what that may be when asked. I will do anything that is fun, cool, and simple things even complex just understand I too have limits.

Aside from the WONTs and OKAYS, If i reject your Order, It may be I am not up to the task or i didn't like your order, and any number of reasons, as of such notice... I'm not entirely obligated to notify everyone who I rejected unless you ask.

When I approve your order form you will hear back from me to discuss your order in further detail.

Link to the order Forms is here.. Go to it and follow the instructions and answer all that is required.
