By submitting your expression of interest to We Will Lead Africa (WWLA) (the Publisher), you (the Contributor) are agreeing to the following terms: 1. The content(s) the Contributor produces (the Contribution) and submits for this volume has not been published elsewhere, and that if it is, the prior publisher must be notified and their consent must be obtained before submission of the Contribution. 2. The Publisher reserves the right to review the Contribution and determine whether or not it will be published in the final volume. 3. The Contributor is transferring permanent royalty-free licence and rights to publish and sell the Contribution, in any binding or medium, to the Publisher. This includes publication of the work in any paper, internet sites and social media, and distribution of the work in print and electronic format. This also covers inclusion of the work in online databases, news services and search archives. 4. The Contributor retains ownership of their submission, and may adapt the material in any way for publication elsewhere. The Contributor is therefore entitled to offer the work for publication to other parties provided only that the Contributor ensures the acknowledgement of initial publication with WWLA. 5. The Contributor agrees that there will be no payments to them of any kind for contributions made to the Project. Proceeds will be applied towards further activities of the Project and the Publisher reserves the right to apply any and all revenue as they deem fit. 6. The Contributor is required to disclose the use of AI and AI-assisted tools in the production of submitted work. Specific sections for this are provided in the submission form. The Contributor is accountable for ensuring that AI-assisted and -generated output reflects original work; does not infringe on copyright; and has been reviewed, checked, and endorsed by a human before submission. The WWLA Editorial Team reserves the right to reject the submission based on non-disclosure or excessive use of AI. 7. This agreement may only be modified in writing signed by the Publisher and the Contributor. 8. This is in effect as of the date in which the Contributor submits their story for the volume, unless the Contributor returns a written notice of non-consent and withdrawal of contributions produced and/or submitted within 5 days of receiving a response regarding their submission. 9. This agreement is also valid for Contributions made and submitted on behalf of others (the Originator). In this case, by submitting the perspective of another, the Contributor is confirming that they have obtained explicit permission from the Originator to share the perspective for the purpose of publication with WWLA and that the originator also agrees to the terms outlined above.
