

Top 5 Call Out Results: Summer Humble Brags

“The day after school got out in June, my husband and I flew to Vegas to see Dead and Co. at the Sphere! We had a blast!” -- Stacy Nishioka, Bradley International School

“I didn't win a vacation from America's Favorite Teacher, so my husband and friends worked together to get me a trip to Greece! The cities were beautiful and we snorkeled in the bluest water I've ever seen!” -- Greg Rios, Knapp Elementary

"Best part of summer? Adopting a bearded dragon named Murray (named after Jamal Murray of course)." -- Jennifer Gaff, Isabella Bird

"Favorite morning coffee view camping in Paonia." -- Rebecca Carr, Respect Academy

"Highlight was spending time on Lake Erie at the family cottage with my husband. The picture shows our view." --
Jef Brown, Northfield High School (image)

"This is a cute picture of my furry friend Tazmin, or Taz for short. We took him on a hike up near Golden where he had a fabulous time getting lots of pets from fellow hikers, exploring the forest, and seeing what wild critters he could befriend." --
Shelby Wosick, Office of Operations

"My favorite part of summer break was traveling around Florida and looking at colleges for my daughter. But one of the best evenings of the trip was going to Clearwater Florida and visiting the Clearwater marina and aquarium where Winter, the dolphin from Dolphin Tail, was and then having dinner on the beach and enjoying the sunset." --Monica Flowers, Knapp Elementary/ Kipp Sunshine Peak Elementary
