Act III - Megalomaniac Moon

- ☐ This is Eggman's lair.
- ☐ Lots of confusing gravity puzzles.
- ☐ You travel throughout his whole base, this level has three micro acts within itself
- ☐ Boss

- ❑ This boss is sort of based on the last boss from Metal Gear Rising.
 - ❑ I mostly like this, because when I played the early Sonic games as a kid, I was like... why is it that I cannot chase down Eggman and beat him up. I would want you to be able to chase him down and defeat him in this game although that feels violent. I think he may deserve it in this game. Maybe he does the time travel thing right before you can "finish him off". I just like the idea of playing with these open ended parts of those games. I felt this really hard during that part in Sonic & Knuckles where Eggman escapes with the Chaos Emerald. I felt very frustrated that you can't intervene, no matter what you do.
- ❑ Forms
 - ❑ Intro - Eggman (Race)
 - ❑ You chase Eggman and try to stop him from getting into his floaty device.
 - ❑ It is very difficult, but you can potentially defeat him here, skipping all of the 3 boss fights.
 - ❑ Pt. 1 - Egg
 - ❑ Eggman floats around in his little floaty device.
 - ❑ It's just the boss fight from the first Sonic game, but it's in 3D.
 - ❑ It builds up and gets very climatic and complicated, lots of swinging wrecking balls.
 - ❑ When you defeat him, he flies into a Mecha.
 - ❑ Pt. 2 - Mecha Robotnick
 - ❑ Feels like a normal climactic boss part 2.
 - ❑ At the end of this, it starts to pilot the whole moon base.
 - ❑ Pt. 3 - The Moon
 - ❑ You fight the whole moon. Maybe this is too similar to Dead Leaves. It would be really satisfying doing something so macro!
 - ❑ The camera is very zoomed out when you are fighting, you are very fast at this point.
 - ❑ Epilogue - Eggman (Brawl)
 - ❑ Yeah, maybe you just bop him on the head and it turns into a cutscene, like how in Bionic Commando you shoot Hitler in the face and it sorta turns into a cutscene. I bet that would feel really kinetic and satisfying.
 - ❑ A cutscene of an egg breaking.
