

Furret Swarm!

Let's invade galleries and social media with Furret!

About

@Pokeswarm is a Twitter account made to host art events for fun, just because we love Pokémon and drawing them. To inaugurate it, let's start with drawing Furret! The goal of this project is just having fun drawing Pokémon. The works you create to participate with will be posted on @Pokeswarm. It's a good way to get more people to know your work: that account will be promoted by @Sifyro and other people participating. We encourage participants to paste a link to their social media/gallery in their submission in order to make yourself known.
