HIYA!!!

These are just some books I enjoyed and some I maybe did not even enjoy, but perhaps you will feel free to take a look around and even add some recommendations in the comments, perhaps.

I just started this and will be adding more soon, so... yeah!

Description:

Cold cases are about to get hot.

Cassie is a natural at reading people. Piecing together the tiniest details, she can tell you who you are and what you want. But it's not a skill that she's ever taken seriously until the FBI comes knocking: they've begun a classified programme that uses exceptional teenagers to crack infamous cold cases, and they need Cassie.

What Cassie doesn't realize is that there's more at risk than a few unsolved murders—especially when she's sent to live with a group of teens whose gifts are as unusual as her own. Soon, it becomes clear that no one in the naturals program is what they seem. And when a new killer strikes, danger looms close. Caught in a lethal game of cat and mouse with a killer, the Naturals are going to have to use all of their gifts just to survive....

My review (no spoilers):

First off, the author does have a YALE degree in psychology; do with that what you will.

The plot twists are honestly just mwah chefs kiss, the pacing is well done, foreshadowing is excellent, and the characters are even better.

If I had a nickel for every time an author could write well-liked, complex characters that actually act their age and their actions with a cause and not just for the plot. I actually don't know how many nickels I'd have, but this book gave me one more nickel. She's able to approach sensitive topics such as abuse, neglect, and trauma in a well-mannered way while still being able to include comedy and fun in the storyline.
