How to Register:
Players need to register for the event with Quadball Canada, through the topscore website.

There are a couple of options:

- Low Contact “Merc” Team: $ 70
    - Recommended for new players, players wanting less contact, or players who aren’t planning to attend nationals.
    - Instructions:
        - Sign Up as an Individual Player $45
        - Add A Low Contact Membership: $25
        - After creating an account, go to Events > Register for Western Regional Championships 2026 > Register Yourself > As an Individual or Small Group. Then Select Next, skip the registration group section. Add your participant information, and select next. In the Quadball Canada membership section, select “low contact 2026-2027”. Continue to checkout. In the cart you should see the $45 individual registration, and the $25 low contact membership. Complete payment and you are good to go!
- Competitive Team: $ 80
    - Recommended for players wanting to also play at nationals.
    - Sign Up on an existing team $30
    - Add A Low Contact Membership: $50
    - After creating an account, go to Events > Register for Western Regional Championships 2026 > Register Yourself > As “On an Existing Team” and select “Alberta Clippers” in the drop down menu. Then Select Next, and your participant information, and select next. In the Quadball Canada membership section, select “MOU Full Contact Membership 2026-2027”. Continue to checkout. In the cart you should see the $30 team member registration, and the $50 full contact membership. Complete payment and you are good to go!

The topscore website can be confusing. Please reach out if you need assistance navigating the process.
