

Name _____

Section _____

Many Rivers to Cross* - Written Analysis

After watching the film Many Rivers to Cross by Henry Louis Gates, compose a response to the film in which you argue what group acts courageously in the period following the assassination of Dr. King.

Use your film notes, exit responses, and courage criteria list in your prewriting and drafting.

Graded Components:

Pre-Writing 3 points

Written Draft 5 points

EXTRA CREDIT - Revised Draft up to 3 points

With the permission of particular students, some responses may be selected to be displayed around the building for the remainder of the month.

Pre-Writing

DIRECTIONS: Use this outline to fill-in your criteria, evidence, and warrants (explanations) for the group you identified as courageous from the film.

Courageous Group / Individual: _____

Criteria Met: _____

Evidence: _____

Warrant (how the evidence matches the criteria in this particular situation)

Criteria Met: _____

Evidence: _____

Warrant (how the evidence matches the criteria in this particular situation)

Criteria Met: _____

Evidence: _____

Warrant (how the evidence matches the criteria in this particular situation)

