

My Girlfriend is a Zombie Chapter 539 - Xiao Bai's Atavism

Translator & Editor: Zephyr04

Read the latest chapter early at <https://zephyr04.wixsite.com/zephyr/novels!>

"You girls... Ahh!"

The moment Su Qian Rou spoke, she felt the rope binding her instantly tighten, and she let out a startled cry.

"Shh... Did you forget the rules that quickly?"

Shana was still holding the other end of the rope, with one gentle tug from her, she pulled Qian Rou upwards, intensifying the friction that Qian Rou felt.

It seems like Shana had specifically used a specific binding method that acts like a pulley system to torment her.

Su Qian Rou wanted to raise her head and look upwards, but remembering the humiliation and upsetting feeling she just felt, she reminded herself that it was best not to move.

"You only speak when I ask questions, understand?"

Shana smiled as she looped the rope around her wrist, "Don't just hang there stunned, answer me!"

Qian Rou's blood boiled, she had never expected that she herself would get taught a lesson by this little girl!

Looking at Shana's pure and innocent round face, Qian Rou felt that a pair of devil horns had grown at the top of the maiden's head.

Seeing Qian Rou purse her lips and remaining silent, Shana immediately threatened to tighten the rope as she slowly looped the rope around her wrist again.

That action instantly made Qian Rou's body go numb, as she hurriedly said in a panic, "Got it! I got it, I got it!"

"Hehe, that's a good girl."

"Good girl my ass!" Qian Rou felt both shame and anger, her eyes even widening as she shifted her gaze to look at Li Wei only to see Li Wei staring at her pitifully.

After a moment of silence, the scaredy cat raised her hands to cover her ears, and buried her head into her knees.

Shana, who didn't pay attention to Qian Rou's tiny movements, asked, "So, why did you follow us?"

"I had something to discuss with you girls." Qian Rou replied, "You see..."

"You should be looking for Ling Mo, it's pointless to discuss with us." Ya Lin interrupted.

"En..." Ye Lian nodded in agreement.

Su Qian Rou was left speechless, "Well, that shuts down any further considerations..."

"How were these 3 ladies so strong yet so obedient! What sort of fucking mystery soup has Ling Mo been feeding them [1]!"

If the 3 ladies were merely weak and frail survivors that relied on Ling Mo, it would've been understandable...

But they all clearly possessed formidable strength, yet why do they all listen to Ling Mo's beck and call?

"You girls have no ambitions!" Qian Rou tried provoking them.

"Ambition... what's that?" Ya Lin and Ye Lian exchanged a bewildered look.

Only Shana nonchalantly replied, "Ling Ge will handle all that boring and troublesome stuff. We aren't interested in that."

...

Su Qian Rou was once again left speechless, it turned out these 3 ladies simply could not be bothered to deal with the hassle.

“Seems like you girls really trust him... have you girls ever considered that the choices he makes may not be the best choice?! With your capabilities, you all could have secured a much more stable and safe place...” in the end, Qian Rou still decided to leave out the messy and complicated business she had with Ling Mo.

Even though Qian Rou was cursing Ling Mo out in her mind and wanted to teach him a lesson earlier, she wavered when the moment actually arrived.

“These 3 girls... they were actually quite innocent... Was there really a need to resort to such tactics to sow discord between them...? If I really were to use that to blackmail him, it’s pretty embarrassing for me too...”

“What a dilemma!” Qian Rou signed in her mind.

“Does it really matter what’s wrong or right? Besides, is it really your place to judge?” Shana grinned.

“Exactly...” Ya Lin and Ye Lian once again exchanged glances and nodded in unison.

“Enough!”

Qian Rou had finally lost her cool, biting her lip feeling utterly exasperated...

“Tch, and here I thought that there was something major.” Shana had lost her interest, turning away.

“Exactly...” Ya Lin nodded her head vigorously, but judging from her expression, she clearly didn’t understand anything.

Ye Lian glanced up at Qian Rou for a short while before losing interest as well.

“Let’s go, I thought she wanted to do something to Ling Ge again... Hmph, one forced kiss wasn’t enough for her, talk about an insatiable woman...”

“Huh?”

“Sigh, don’t bother asking...”

As the 3 female zombies spoke, they opened the door and walked out without ever looking back.

Qian Rou was left there, completely dumbfounded.

Once she finally snapped out of it, the Falcon’s Chief of Staff was so furious she was practically gnashing her teeth, “Explain yourself! Who’s the insatiable one! That Ling Mo... how dare he say such things! You girls aren’t angry? Why aren’t you all angry! Hey! When did I ever do anything to him! “

Ya Lin, who was walking the very back, hearing Qian Rou's rant, suddenly turned her head back and gave Qian Rou a wink, "It's okay, I understand."

'Thud—'

Once the door closed, the room instantly went silent.

"Who asked for your understanding!!!"

After a few seconds of empty silence, Su Qian Rou suddenly stiffened, shouting, "Come back! Put me down! Hey! Li Wei! Li Wei! Why are you still plugging your ears! Help!!"

...

Once it was night, Ling Mo silently sneaked out of the second camp and into the wilderness outside.

With his current Spiritual Strength, with his ability to hide his presence while scanning the surroundings, slipping out silently was hardly a challenge for him.

He was about to set off to X City tomorrow morning, he chose to sneak out for only 1 reason.

He swiftly moved forward, parting through the overgrown weeds as he tracked the direction of the Spiritual Connection.

An ordinary Psychic could never match his agility, only his body that was already genetically altered by the virus could achieve this level of performance without being a Physically Enhanced Psychic.

"It's somewhere here..."

Ling Mo sensory perception has grown significantly stronger now, the closer he was, the more precise the location at the other end of the Spiritual Connect became.

'Whoosh!'

Just as Ling Mo parted a thick clump of overgrown weeds, a white blue suddenly flashed back past him.

Such a scene unfolding in the thick of the wilderness would make any ordinary survivor's heart skip a beat.

A chubby white Mutant Beast was in a frenzy chasing a human. Despite its enormous size, its movements were extremely nimble, far surpassing the human it was chasing.

Ling Mo managed to dodge multiple times with some effort, but eventually he still got pounced on by the Mutant Beast and pinned down on the grass.

"Meigrr~"

Xiao Bai gently rested its paw on Ling Mo's shoulder, before lowering its head and nuzzling vigorously against his face.

"Alright alright... Hey, it tickles!"

"What the fuck?!"

Ling Mo tried to turn his head to dodge, but he never expected over a dozen silver threads to shoot out from Xiao Bai's white fur, holding his head firmly in place.

Xiao Bai, seizing the opportunity, used its massive head to nuzzle Ling Mo roughly. The one-two combo of the 2 Mutant Beast, one tiny and one giant coordinating together perfectly gave Ling Mo no chance to even catch his breath.

"Let go ahead... that tickles... stop... stop licking me already!"

Just then, another head popped out from behind Xiao Bai, Yu Shi Ran who was looking at the currently struggling Ling Mo, started giggling, "You left us outside over the past few days, Xiao Bai missed you like crazy!"

"It's more like it's trying to kill me..." Ling Mo barely managed to choke out those few words.

"Hmph, Xiao Bai, get up."

Yu Shi Ran patted Xiao Bai's head, as the silver threads around her neck retracted.

Ling Mo finally broke free, laying on the ground coughing violently for a while before being able to catch his breath.

Although Xiao Bai was extremely careful and held back as much as it could, its sheer weight and strength had no way to be restrained, no matter how much it held back Ling Mo's physical body had no way of enduring that impact comfortably.

"Its been barely a few days, how did you get so fat again?"

Ling Mo said after glancing at Xiao Bai.

Given Xiao Bai's size, there was no way for Ling Mo to bring it into the Falcon's Second Camp, Ling Mo could only leave Shi Ran with the beast here in the wilderness, issuing Hei Si a single command "Do not leave this area"

The wilderness here was vast and filled with tall grass, making it a perfect place for concealing things. Even if they were in this wilderness actively searching for things it was extremely hard for them to spot the 2 Mutant Beasts and 1 Zombie, much less trying to spot them from afar.

After Ling Mo's Spiritual Strength increased, the maximum distance between him and his zombie puppet's mental connection also increased.

The previous limitation of around 2000 meters had now increased to over 3000 meters.

To the current Ling Mo, this range was more than enough.

"Xiao Bai has a large appetite!" Yu Shi Ran replied, shaking the small pouch around her waist, "It ate most of the snack you've left behind among the 3 of us!"

This zombie's bust size had also increased considerably, however, Ling Mo only glanced at it for a second before looking away.

"This is just too unnatural... For a mere loli, her 'Combat Power' [2] was almost surpassing Shana's..."

"Hmm...? Why's Xiao Bai's fur color..."

Ling Mo reached out, parting the fur around Xiao Bai's neck to examine closely before exclaiming.

Under the moonlight, and the earlier situation, Ling Mo had missed this change until now.

But upon looking closely, Xiao Bai's white fur was the same as usual, but his red fur had deepened in color.

It was evident that after leaving the semi-enclosed zoo environment, Xiao Bai had started to adapt to its new surroundings and role, shifting the vocal point of its evolutionary direction.

After spending a few days in the wilderness, its evolutionary changes were becoming more obvious.

To be more exact... it was a case of atavism [3]!

This Mutant Beast panda's appearance was slowly becoming close to that of a standard panda, the only difference was that its size was several times larger than that of an average adult panda.

"You're always getting stuck in narrow doorways and passageways, why haven't I seen you try slimming down a bit!"

Just as Ling Mo said his piece, he immediately thought of Hei Si, before shaking his head, "Nevermind, you're better the way you are now."

"Are you taking us back now?" Shi Ran asked.

“Umm... I’m not able to yet. Truth is...” Watching Yu Shi Ran’s gaze turn icy cold, Ling Mo maintained his composure, continuing, “You guys will still have to follow me for a while longer...”

A Spiritual Connection range of 3000 meters, and that wasn’t even Ling Mo’s limit! Taking into consideration the altitude at which helicopters fly, it was fine for Yu Shi Ran and Xiao Bai to chase after them on foot.

Xiao Bai possessed exceptional speed and stamina even among Mutant Beasts, although running the whole way on foot was going to be grueling, but Xiao Bai is able to endure it.

After carefully weighing all of these factors, Ling Mo finally made the decision to follow Lucy and her group back to X City.

“Hmph!”

Yu Shi Ran let out a heavy, muffled grunt as her small arms wrapped around Xiao Bai’s neck. “When I find Half-moon again, I’ll eat you up, Sausage Human!”

“Yes yes... I’ll be waiting for that time.” Ling Mo said, sounding completely insincere,

[1] - She was implying Ling Mo was feeding them something to make them so obedient to him despite the 3 ladies being so powerful

[2] - 'Combat Power' if you guys have forgotten is their bust

[3] - Atavism: Atavism means the return of an old, ancestral trait or behavior after skipping many generations