

Project _____ Group _____ Date _____

Materials Manager _____

Job Description: This student is responsible for maintaining the materials. He/she keeps the kit organized and makes sure all pieces are accounted for before construction and after disassembly.

Category	4	3	2	1
Maintenance of Materials	Kit is organized and all materials are accounted before construction and after disassembly	Kit is organized but pieces are found at workstation after class	Kit is somewhat organized; pieces may be found at workstation after class	Kit is a shambles; pieces are regularly found to be missing
Focus	Consistently stays focused on task	Focused on task most of the time	Somewhat focused	Is rarely focused
Problem Solving	Consistently seeks solutions to problems	Contributes to problem-solving somewhat	Rarely contributes	Allows other group members to solve problems
Pride/Quality of Work	Final product represents work of highest quality and the group's best effort	High quality work showing strong effort by group	Final product shows effort by group with some motivation by leader	Final product reflects little effort by group with little to no motivation by leader
Working with Others	Always allows others to present ideas and is able recognize and support the best ideas. Respects other members of the group and tries to make sure that the project is truly a group effort.	Almost always allows others to present ideas and is able recognize and support the best ideas. Respects other members of the group and tries to make sure that the project is truly a group effort.	Rarely allows others to present ideas but is able recognize and support the best ideas. Respects other members of the group and tries to make sure that the project is truly a group effort.	It's a one-person show

Comments:

_____/20