

NARAA CASTING CALL

ABOUT

Aesir Interactive is a video game studio based in Munich, Germany. Known for simulation games and horse games, we've recently announced Windstorm: The Legend of Khiimori.

The third video game installment of the renowned Windstorm (Ostwind) series, Khiimori takes place in 13th century Mongolia where players will experience the adventures of a horse courier named Naraa and explore the vast wilderness of the Mongolian steppes.

“Take on the role of a brave courier rider in Windstorm: The Legend of Khiimori! Bond with your horse and tame the open wilds of 13th century Mongolia. Breed and train horses with specialized abilities to explore every aspect of this diverse and fascinating landscape.”

RECORDING INSTRUCTIONS

- ❖ Record tracks as .mp3 only at 44100 or 48000 Hz.
- ❖ Please record to one file in 3 takes or less of ABCABC format.
- ❖ Make sure there are no distractions in your recording, such as background noise or plosives.
- ❖ Must have access to professional equipment (no headset or bluetooth microphones) and an appropriately treated recording space.
- ❖ Naming Convention: "CharacterName_ActorName.mp3".
 - For example: "Naraa_JaneDoe.mp3".
- ❖ Please send auditions to [auditions have now closed]
 - Email Subject Format:
 - "KHIIMORI - CharacterName Audition - YourName"

Deadline for auditions will be July 14th, 2025 (23:59 CEST)

Turnaround for this role will be expedited. Recording will take place as early as the 16th of July.

This work IS paid! The script's word count has not yet been determined, so please quote your rate in the body of your e-mail.

Aesir Interactive guarantees your voice and performance will not be used for any AI purposes. We can provide a signed AI rider upon request.

CHARACTER PROFILE

NARAA

MAIN CHARACTER - FEMALE

WINDSTORM
THE LEGEND OF KHIIMORI

DESCRIPTION

The lore of Khiimori and its characters are still being designed, but this is a brief introduction to provide context for your audition:

When comparing the tumultuous reign of Chinggis Khan to early 13th century Mongolia, those within her borders experienced a period of relative peace. As villages and encampments continued to expand, the need for a formal information delivery system was born.

Mongolian yam couriers were responsible for delivering letters and parcels to their intended recipients while expertly navigating the wild and treacherous steppes. Cue Naraa's origin story:

Naraa originally hails from a part of Mongolia which is further west than our game's playable region. With time and dedication, Naraa established herself as a yam courier and now fulfills her duty delivering parcels and letters to the inhabitants of this Mongolian region, as well as taking on the occasional quest or two for friends and desperate villagers.

Windstorm: The Legend of Khiimori has a strong emphasis on the immutable connection humans have to nature and animals. As such, Naraa is an expert horse trainer, rider, and caretaker.

For the sake of authenticity and representation, we are only considering voice actors of Mongolian or Chinese heritage

Gender: Female.

Vocal Age: Young Adult 18-30s.

Accent: Mongolian. Chinese will also be considered, but we really want to represent Mongolia well.

Characteristics: Well-spoken, fearless, strong, insatiably curious, determined, good-hearted, sometimes modest.

AUDITION LINES

Please only voice the lines marked as “NARAA”
The “KHASAR” lines are here only for context

CHARACTER	LINE
NARAA	I'm ready. What am I transporting? Or am I 'too young to know' - like always?
KHASAR	You're transporting important documents. As to their content, their secrecy has nothing to do with your age. It's between the Khan and his ... counterparts.
NARAA	So mysterious. You know how to get me invested!
KHASAR	Please be careful on this journey, Naraa.
NARAA	Yeah, I know. Important documents, keep them dry. This isn't my first courier ride, Khasar.
KHASAR	No... I mean, yes, look after the documents. But also look out for yourself. Tolui, our most trusted rider, did not return last night. He was on a dangerous ride when the storm erupted, so we fear the worst.
NARAA	Tolui? But he knows these mountains better than anyone!
KHASAR	That's why I'm telling you to be careful, Naraa. We seem to be cursed by these storms recently. Make sure you have enough supplies for the journey. Stay on safer paths where you can. And one final thing:
KHASAR	Let me mark the route on your map that I would be taking to Melkhii Khad. It's a bit longer but you avoid any jumps across the river. Now go. Be safe.
NARAA	Thank you, Khasar. See you soon.

THANK YOU

Thank you for taking interest in our little project! 🙏

Reminder this casting call closes at 23:59 CEST on July 14th.
We will not be listening to any auditions prior to closing.

Please direct any questions to our community team at [auditions are now closed]. We will not be offering feedback at this time.

Find us all over the web!

Steam Store Page

Official Aesir Interactive Discord Server

Bluesky | Facebook | Instagram | Threads | TikTok | Twitter / X | Youtube

Aesir Interactive GmbH

