

Hi xxx,

How are you? Hope you're having fun with Mozilla Community!

I saw that you have been [name contributions here] in the last week. That's great! Maybe you want to also have a look at [name contributions here], it's a bit more challenging but equally fun.

If there are any areas that are unclear to you, don't hesitate to drop me an email, I'm always happy to help.

Also don't hesitate to join the discussions on the SUMO #iRC channel or on the contributor forums, it's a lot of fun! We are a community of enthusiastic Mozilla volunteers and employees trying to create the best support experience for our millions of users around the globe, I guarantee you will never get bored!

Best,

Madalina
