

You (4 years ago)

You were there when I wasn't myself,
You were there when I was myself,
In every happening in my life you were always there

You're my saving grace and my precious one
The smile you put on my face is incomparable,
The love you gave me was unexchangeable,
The efforts you made was extraordinary

I always need you,
I always want you,
You're my greatest necessity in this life,
You're the greatest gift that I received,
and you are the best on top of the best
