

Who am I Talking To:

Jordan, 35, software engineer

Where are they now:

He works for a company earning a decent amount of money, but he hates the fact that all of his time is spent on work and he can't enjoy time with his family and enjoy his life.

He comes back from work on an average day feeling tired and annoyed thinking about his lack of money and time. Painful current state.

He usually has lunch with his family quickly and rushes to spend time learning about the Airbnb business. Watches videos, does some research, and watches Instagram reels about it.

Jordan wants to be able to start a side business, to earn extra money which he can then build up more and more to be able to quit his day job and enjoy as much time as possible with his loved ones, while still making a lot of money with passive income. One day, while waiting for lunch, he opens Instagram and sees this post.

Where do I want them to go: + Steps

I want them to see the post, grab their attention, build up curiosity + amplify pain. After discovering this roadblock, they'll want to click on the link in the bio to purchase the product and solve it.

Script Focusing on Landlord-Script in PDF Kit:

Without this one skill, you will lose forever.

The single most important skill to making any sort of money with Airbnb Arbitrage is having a good pitch.

Most beginners either prepare their pitch in a few days and tell themselves it's good enough.

Or even worse, some don't even prepare a pitch at all.

And then they wonder why the landlord is rolling their eyes waiting for them to stop talking to instantly slam them with a rejection.

"But how can I improve my pitch?"

There are two ways...

You either go for months or even years of harsh rejection until you finally get a yes.

Or, you can skip all of that painful struggle and start landing properties by going for a faster and smarter approach.

After facing countless rejections straight to my face.

And now making over 7 figures from my Airbnb Business alone.

I've condensed everything I learned and crafted the "you-need-me" script...

And if used correctly, can make almost any landlord happily shake your hand and say "yes" to ANY offer you make.

I could talk for days about the psychological power this script has...

But I'd rather watch you use it to land multiple properties for yourself.

If you want to get access to this thoroughly tested script and finally make enough money to escape the 9 to 5 cage, go to my page and click the second link in my bio.

The number one key to quitting your 9 to 5 with Airbnb.

I call it, the "win-big or forever-lose" skill.

No matter how intelligent you are about the business,

Or how irresistible your offer is.

If you don't work on your pitch, you'll probably never have the time to make beautiful memories with your loved ones.

Click the second link in my bio to discover how you can start earning more than double your income as fast as humanly possible.

You will never climb out of your 9 to 5 cage with Airbnb if you skip this crucial step.

This is the single most important aspect to making any sort of money with Airbnb Arbitrage...

No matter how intelligent you are about the business,

Or how irresistible your offer is.

If you don't work on this "win-big or forever-lost" aspect, you'll probably never have the time to make beautiful memories with your loved ones.

All because you're stuck in your miserable job.

That key aspect to success with Airbnb Arbitrage is your first approach.

Never use this phrase if you ever want to make money with Airbnb arbitrage.

When pitching a landlord, almost all beginners make the same mistake now knowing that it's killing their chances.

If you're looking for a way to quit your job and start enjoying life with your loved ones.

Especially if you're starting from scratch and you don't own any property.

There are 3 "deadly words" you should NEVER USE if you ever want to get your offer accepted by the landlord.

I see almost all beginners making this same mistake and not realizing how dangerous it can be for their business.

In fact, using these 3 very common words can instantly turn an overly excited landlord who is ready to accept your offer into one who can't wait till you finish your pitch so they can reject it.

And if you don't want that to happen to you, here are the 3 words you should avoid at all costs:

"I don't know"

If the landlord ever asks you a question and you reply with:

"Uhh, I don't know"

That immediately signals to the landlord that you are the last person they should trust with their property.

And if you ever want to make enough money with Airbnb arbitrage to be able to break free from the 9 to 5 trap and enjoy life just like I did,

You have to be able to make landlords trust you.

Which is why you need to “know the business”

But where is the best place to learn about the business?

Well, you can either spend time researching online, but make sure you’re careful because a lot of people out there try to “scam” you more than they try to “teach” you.

Or you can go to my youtube channel by clicking the link in my bio, where I cover exactly every single thing you need to know about Airbnb arbitrage so that no matter what question the landlord asks you, you’ll always be ready to answer with confidence, significantly increasing the chances of your offer being accepted.

I want to create an Instagram Post to promote his PDF Kit.
