

Module 4 Conclusion

Summary

In this module we dove deeper into the idea, using some self reflection, of privilege and intersectionality. We also looked at how the systems in power create laws and barriers for many in our society who hold less power, and how we can help change and create safer spaces.

Competencies and Skills

You should now understand and be able to

- Describe concepts central to systems of power
- Discuss privilege and power
- Discuss how we can make changes and lives better
