

After reading “The Fall of a City”, by Alden Nowlan, you will have realized that Teddy has created a most marvellous fantasy world. This world is an extended metaphor of his relationship with his aunt and uncle. In a well written composition discuss how each character: the aunt, uncle and Teddy are exemplified in the fantasy world and what this reveals about their relationships.

You will need to:

- use TAG (title, author, genre) in your topic sentence, and utilize transitional phrases where necessary.
- use quotes from the story to support your discussion
- double space your work
- proof read, do a spelling and grammar check

Finally: you will need to hand this assignment in by ____November 12__ at 3 pm at the latest.