

Here is the breakdown of how many people in Belgium carry these 13 names:

Name	Approximate Count (Belgium)	Note on Prevalence
Schuyvinck	< 50	Very rare; concentrated mostly in East Flanders.
Brel	~40 - 60	Rare; iconic but not geographically widespread.
Gezelle	< 60	Uncommon; primarily found in West Flanders.
Sax	~ 150	Moderately common, especially in the Liège and Brussels regions.
Vanderstichele	~ 250	Well-established, particularly in West Flanders.

		It is most commonly found in the Dutch-speaking Flemish region, specifically in the province of East Flanders
Artois	~ 250	Uncommon; mostly found in the Walloon Brabant area.
Van Houghton	< 10	Extremely rare in Belgium; more common in the Netherlands/USA.
Deneuker	~100 - 150	Uncommon; mainly found in the Flemish Brabant region.
Poep	~ 50	Historically documented but nearly extinct as a surname today.
Hond	~50 - 100	Rare; often seen in variants like De Hond or D'Hondt .
Errembault	~30 - 50	Very rare; often associated with noble lineages (e.g., Errembault de Dudzeele).
Xhenceval	~100 - 150	Specific to the Walloon region, particularly near Liège.
Wattergniaux	~20 - 40	Very rare; concentrated in the Hainaut province.