- Review workflow
- Feedback from Mikko
 - How much do we want to teach people to teach?
 - We need to think about whether we can come up with learning outcomes in a single lesson.
 - Come with better word for 'content' we're building. Are these sessions, modules.
 - 'Transferable competency'
 - "Leadership is not about being above, but having knowledge others want"
 - Using social leadership as lens/tool to evaluate our toolkit .
- Github Task statuses
- website

Next Steps

- Emma to talk to Ruben & guillermo about personas and reviewing of learning outcomes.
- Mikko to think more about learning outcomes
- Mikko to write out his suggestions for using social leadership as development guide
- Calling content modules allows us to think about learner pathways - thus they are called modules now ;)
- Continue building learning outcomes and templates
- Goals for Hawaii sprint and content dev (emma)

4. Figuring out workflow
 - a. Learning outcomes & description (approval ?)
 - i. Lets work on learning outcomes these async
 1. Run them by Ruben & George & Guillermo (for approval, yes this is what we need/meant)
 2. Up to 4
 - a. "You will learn how to" (might not always work, but basically)

- i. Read
 - ii. Write
 - iii. Laugh
 - 3. Content titles can (and probably should change)
- b. Content sources
 - i.
- c. Format
 - i.
- d. Self-assessment/testing pieces (we can talk about this next week)
- 5. Testing in next heartbeat (#3)
 - a. Guillermo with regional coaches will direct people to our QA'd content to start 'taking' that training and evaluating.
 - b. Emma to create screencast for coaches to pitch the opportunity to test content.
 - i. Sign Up before next heartbeat?
 - ii. Sign up for specific content per community
- 6. Dreaming about syndication not just one site.
